

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

SHIPWRECK AND DREADFUL SUFFERINGS OF THE CREW.—New York, Nov. 29.—Dutch bark Sophie Elizabeth, Capt. Vanderhoff, arrived at this port this evening, from Amsterdam, reports—Nov. 1. lat 50. 30. lon. 39 12, fell in with British bark Jeanie Johnston, Capt. Johnson, from Quebec for Hull, waterlogged; took from her the captain, wife and child and 12 seamen.—Captain Johnson makes the following report:

"Sailed from Quebec Oct. 5 with cargo of timber, and dead; 21st lat 48. 30. lon. 65. 30. N. E. to N. W. with heavy squalls during the night; at 1.30 A. M. 22d, increased to heavy gales from E. N. E. lay the ship by, under main trysail, and set all hands to the pumps; at 6 A. M. was heaved by a sea, which washed away quarter beam and stern of the ship; at 1.40 P. M. washed away the right mainmast, starboard side of the deck house; at 2.30 stove in the bottom of the hull, filling the cabin with water, washed away foremast, mainmast, and split existing board along the main rigging; the crew were several times washed away from the pumps; at 11.40 P. M. ship full of water; all hands took to the mainmast; a tremendous sea making a clean sweep over the ship; had no time to get up water; the barometer showed 28.70—fell in lat 47. 15. lon. 41. 25.

On 23d, 9 A. M., saw a bark to leeward—set signal for distress, but was not seen; strong breeze from N. E. and a heavy sea.—24th, at noon saw a brig to leeward, but she did not make us out; our rudder unsprung during the night, and took away the counter; had been now nearly 48 days in the top, with no water; weather cold. Saw no more vessels until the 1st—another bark to leeward; at 2 P. M. of that day saw a bark to windward, and took us all off before dark, a very heavy sea on at the time. The last two nights spent in the mainmast and with heavy squalls of snow and hail, from which we got water to drink. Our deliverer proved to be Capt. S. T. Vanderhoff, of the Holland bark Sophie Elizabeth, and from Amsterdam for New York, who sent his boats, and notwithstanding a heavy sea, took us all safely on board, where we have received every kindness and comfort. It was possible to rescue, and for which we shall be thankful as long as I live, having with my wife and child, and crew of 12 men, been in the mainmast nine days and nights. The J. J. was ten years old, owned and insured in Shields.

Signed: James Watts Johnston, Captain. Capt. J. and four of the crew have their feet and arms much swollen.

A JEWISH RABBI DEALER IN LOTTERY TICKETS ARRESTED AT THE ALTAR.—On Wednesday, Rabbi Abraham Joseph Asch was arrested at the altar of the synagogue in Allen street, New York, for selling tickets in Prussian Saxony and Hamburg lotteries. At the time he was arrested in his priestly garments, and engaged in giving instructions to about four hundred Hebrews, who attempted without success to rescue him from the grasp of the officers. With highly inflamed indignation, they denounced the desecration of the temple. Officers also visited the residence of Asch, which they searched for tickets, but found only some fragments. Mrs. Asch, and children had torn up some tickets, and attempted to eat others. Rabbi Moses Levi, agent for Asch, was also arrested, after making a stout resistance.

Both were held for trial at the next Court of Sessions. The complaint was made by Rabbi Lassin, the leading rabbi in the city, who informed the Mayor that many of his people had been reduced to poverty by purchasing tickets. The excited Hebrews surrounded the station house on Wednesday night, and in a very tumultuous manner demanded the release of the rabbis.

FRACAS BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND RUSSIAN MINISTERS TO PERSIA.—We give the following on the authority of the Ost-Danish Post:—"A conflict has occurred at Tashkent between M. d'Anthoff, the Russian Minister, and Mr. Murray, the English Envoy, which produced a great scandal, and which has even been referred to by the Russian Emperor in terms of severity. On the occasion of the anniversary of his Sovereign's birthday, the Russian Minister gave a very brilliant feast, to which were invited the principal personages of the court, the Shah's Ministers, and the corps of diplomatique. A little before the time fixed for dinner, the English Minister entered with all the staff of his legation, but just as the guests were sitting down to table, Mr. Murray suddenly quitted the room with all his suite, without taking leave of M. d'Anthoff, or assigning any motive for this singular conduct. The Russian diplomatist was grievously offended by this conduct, and demanded an explanation, with Mr. Murray altogether refused. The English Plenipotentiary evidently must have had some motive, of which every one is yet ignorant."

THE BURNS CENTENARY IN LONDON.—The Crystal Palace Company propose to hold a festival on the birth-day, and to revive of the occasion the old traditions of the minstrel. Fifty guineas have been offered for the best poem in honor of Burns—lists open to all the world—language, English not Scotch—metre and matter at the writer's own discretion. Three judges, not yet named, will decide on the merits, and the money will be paid immediately after the public recitation of the poem.

THE DEAD ALIVE.—The Birmingham (Eng.) Post relates a remarkable case of restoration to animation, after apparent death. The subject was a young girl twelve or thirteen years of age, who dwelt away under some unaccountable complaint, and as her friends imagined, died. Her body was rigid and icy cold, and was laid out in the usual manner, many pieces being placed over the eyes. For more than two days the supposed corpse lay beneath the winding sheet, when the grandfather of the girl, on going to see the corpse, remarked one of the corner corners, and, although the eyes remained closed, he fancied he saw a movement beneath the lid. Another person on looking closely also observed a movement. The body was then removed, and on being placed on the floor, it was then ascertained of the circumstances; and although at first treated as a delusion, the application of an instrument to the region of the heart soon convinced him that there was life within the apparent corpse. The body was then removed to a warmer room, and by degrees animation was restored, a loud sneeze placed upon her being a living subject, and a further fact, a speech was uttered by her, describing everything she had taken place from the time of her supposed death, and she had even closed her eyes and placed the fingers thereon. She also heard the remarks made over her as she lay in her death-clothes. At first on her restoration she refused all sustenance, and on some aliment being forced upon her she became greatly excited, so that it required much force to hold her. Afterwards she manifested a wish to destroy her father and mother. She now lies in such a state that she can neither be killed alive nor dead, the former state being only ascertained by a careful examination of her pulse.

THE DELERATIONS.—From the papers and private reports, it appears that the Delegation from these Colonies who went to England for the purpose of agreeing upon a Federation of the Provinces, and taking into consideration the Intercolonial Railway, have failed in their mission. Various causes are assigned why they did not agree among themselves; such as, that they had no definite plan or scheme to submit, and that the New Brunswick delegates would not agree to the terms proposed by their fellow colonists of Canada and Nova Scotia. This may be true or not, it is, however, apparent that the people of this Province, or perhaps to speak more definitely, the majority of them would not consent to be taxed such a large sum for the erection of public buildings for Federal Legislation, nor would they consent to give £20,000 per annum, and a belt of land ten miles in width through the Province, for the purpose of building an Intercolonial Railway by the North Shore route; and as to this Province contributing one-third of the whole cost of constructing the Railway—even Lord Bury himself in one of his speeches said "this course would be very unfavorable to this Province." The fact is the people of the Province have already as heavy a public debt as they can bear, swallowing as it will a large portion of the Revenue to pay even the interest. The Delegates from these Colonies may, however, have effected an important desideratum, viz:—making these Provinces better known to the people of the Mother Country; and if they were on the alert, paving the way for a future emigration, which is as important a measure as they could submit. Of course nothing definite will be known until the meeting of the Legislature.

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—The Borderer comes out in mourning for, and contains a very appropriate obituary notice of Hon. Charles T. Allison, founder of the Mount Allison Academy, Sackville. Some years ago Mr. Allison was gazetted to a seat in the Legislative Council, but he soon tendered his resignation, thinking no doubt that he could make himself useful in another sphere. He must have expended large sums of money in building and endowing the Western Academy at Mount Allison. All who had the pleasure of his personal acquaintance unite in giving him the character of a zealous and truly pious man.—(Head Quarters.)

THE MEMBERS OF THE ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY (with their guests) celebrated the anniversary of their Tutelar Saint last evening, as usual, at the York Hotel. The company sat down to an excellent dinner, served up in Mr. Whelpley's best style, to which ample justice was done. Songs and toasts, and bumpers of good usquebaugh followed, and everything passed off with the most perfect order, hilarity, and good fellowship.—(Hd. Qrs.)

GENERAL WILLIAMS.—Our distinguished countryman arrived in this city on Monday last, from St. John via Windsor, by rail.—Sir William was of course the guest of Doctor Twining while in town. Yesterday morning, attended by a host of the Alumni of King's College, and others, the Hero of Kara proceeded to Windsor by the train; where was invested with the degree of Doctor of Civil Law. The party returned to the city same afternoon, and a number of the Clergy of Diocese of Nova Scotia dined with the Lord Bishop (Bishop) in the evening.—It is understood that General Williams takes his departure for England in the steamer on Thursday night.—(Halifax Journal.)

AT A BANQUET GIVEN BY THE FISHERMEN'S COMPANY IN LONDON, on the 9th inst., Sir Charles Bright, the English of the Atlantic Telegraphic Company was seated. In reply, he said that the partial interruption of telegraphing between Europe and America should cause no astonishment. There could be no doubt of ultimate success. It was simply a question of time.

MR. SUMNER.—The Boston Advertiser has seen a letter from Hon. Charles Sumner, to a friend in Milton, Mass., dated at Worn, Nov. 8, 1858, in which Mr. Sumner speaks in encouraging terms of the state of his health, anticipating a speedy recovery.

A shocking murder was perpetrated at the South End, last evening, about half-past eight o'clock. The victim was Johanna Crowley. She was killed at her residence, No. 10, Cove Place, by her husband John Crowley, a laborer, who in a fit of intoxication made an attack upon her with an axe and a knife and cut her throat, severing her jugular vein. Their two children witnessed the transaction. Crowley made his escape and had not been arrested at 1 o'clock this morning. The deceased is represented as having been a quiet and industrious person.—1b.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—It will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, that a Course of Lectures under the auspices of the St. Andrew's Society is announced. J. G. STEVENS, Esq., to deliver the opening lecture. This is a move in the right direction; and we hope to see the course well patronized. A portion of the winter evenings may thus be profitably spent and a rich intellectual harvest reaped.—(Herald.)

The British bark W. B. Dean from Glasgow arrived at this port last evening, bringing the crew of the British bark Ageneria, which the Dean had taken in with at sea and found in a water logged and sinking condition.—1b.

The Standard

ST. ANDREW'S, DEC. 8, 1858.

The train reached the Howard Settlement precisely at 1 o'clock, left there on their return at half past one, and reached the Depot St. Andrews 19 minutes before 5; thus accomplishing the whole distance 130 miles including stoppages, which were frequent in ten minutes less than 7 hours, that is 19 miles an hour, a pretty fast rate of travel, but from the accelerated speed that was sometimes put on we have no doubt that 25 or even 30 miles an hour might be easily done.—There were over 100 passengers in the cars on their return, about 40 of whom belonged to Woodstock, including the Brass Band who brought their instruments with them, and performed in the Town Hall, the same evening, to a numerous and much gratified audience, who relished the music exceedingly, many spirited and melodious tunes were played in excellent style, concluding with "God save the Queen," which was responded to with hearty cheers, and the evening wound off with a supper of which the musicians, and other gentlemen of Woodstock, and of this town partook, but it was given expressly in honor of the visitors from Woodstock. James W. Chandler, M. P. P. presided, and was ably assisted by G. F. Campbell and Harris H. Hatch, Esqs. as Vice Presidents.

The regular toasts given were:—"THE QUEEN," drunk with great enthusiasm. "PRINCE ALBERT AND THE ROYAL FAMILY." "THE ARMY AND NAVY." "HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR." "OUR WOODSTOCK GUESTS," speech from the chair—reply by Mr. Baird.

THE MANAGER OF THE RAILWAY, CHIEF ENGINEER AND STAFF, speech from the Chair—reply by Julius Thompson, Esq. A number of volunteer toasts were then given, after an evening of much enjoyment kept up with greatest hilarity and good humor, the company separated some time after midnight. Next morning, after the band had entertained the public with some music in the street, the woodstock gentlemen took their departure, some of them for St. Stephen, they seemed to enjoy the trip very much, and were in high and even exuberant spirits, the best of feeling seems to prevail, and we may expect to have a great deal of intercourse between the two places, not only in the way of trade which will spring up as a matter of course, but also excursions and pleasure trips, many will no doubt be attracted thence, if it was only to see the salt water, and in this quarter much interest will be felt to see the Town or City of Woodstock which has arrived at some celebrity, as the capital of the richest farming county in the Province, and also a place of much trade, to what extent, the great natural advantages, and resources of that important section of the Province, will be improved and strengthened by means of the free and easy intercourse the railway will afford, may be well imagined.

The freight of goods, will now commence in earnest, there being large deposits in this town that have been waiting for the track to be opened, among the rest 4,000 barrels of flour from St. John, intended for the upper country, and no doubt, however the St. John people may dislike it, there will be more from the same quarter.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Masons of Providence, R. I., celebrated St. Andrew's Day, Tuesday, 30th ult., by a festival in Mason's Hall. The brothers of the mystic tie were present in large numbers, and many good speeches were made.

novel, and unexpected, contributed much to enliven the scene. A substantial dinner was provided by Mr. Patterson, who keeps a very convenient house of entertainment, at which nearly all the assembled company regaled themselves with plenty to drink and hardly had time to do so before the signal for departure was given, the stoppage being only half an hour, we wished ourselves it had been longer, in order to give time for viewing the improvements going on which are very considerable. A Station house, and stores on a large scale are in course of erection and a number of workmen employed to all appearance the Howard Settlement bids fair to become a place of some note. There will be a regular Railroad station, and most likely a Post Office there, and as the Settlement itself is a flourishing one, the land being good and abundant, it is not to be wondered at that the accommodation of the inhabitants, there is a great deal to be done, if not more already there.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. Capt. Robinson, of Campo Bello, came passenger in the Canadian Steamship North Briton, from England, and arrived at Campo Bello on Friday last.

The Boston Atlas of the 2d inst. says:—"The Indian Empire left New York on the 23d, and Halifax on the 29th of Oct., and had not been heard from when the Europa left Liverpool, although she was then eleven days overdue. Apprehensions are naturally felt that she has met with some disaster."

The New York Evening Post says it may be that she is out of coal, as the Europa, on her last trip, used up all her coal in contending against the heavy weather, and was obliged to put into Queenstown, Ireland, for a supply. The Indian Empire took from this port about nine hundred tons, which, at her usual rate of consumption—fifty tons a day—would last her only eighteen days.

The Indian Empire took out eighty-one passengers, fourteen of whom were in the first cabin, and a crew of sixty-eight men. She also had about two hundred tons of cargo, consisting of cotton, tobacco and staves.
