SUGGESTION

Many seem to be under the impression that a man's wife should start a leaflet fund. Though sometimes very good, and often the Incumbent has other duties; while many have far more time to devote to the work than to start it.

Consult your clergyman. He is acting under his authority, asking for helpful papers, and if desired, a request may be made of the Diocesan members of the Diocesan parish, asking each individual to attend the first meeting. This meeting on the previous day to take part in the movement, asked on opening the meeting, Honorary-President should be asked for the work and privileges of the work, and so clearly. Then be elected, choosing regardless of social position, page 5, for further perfect liberty to make its funds are to be raised, then members shall meet, &c., & from them is a Report (1) Meeting, and one for the Annual Meeting, and one for the Annual of all that has been done done, but little to say, these Reports with the Diocesan Branch, they are not units but sister in our great Dominion, all by strengthening the hand together is the membership possess. This card has the President of the Branch to the Quebec Diocesan Branch motto of the whole Canadian of Christ constraineth us," a
