Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

CIVIL SERVANTS HEAR TOM MOORE

Crowded Theatre When Labor Question Discussed.

The Russell Theatre was crowded Sunday night by civil servants who attended at the invitation of the Associated Federal Employees of Ottawa, Local 66, to hear addresses by Mr. Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and Mr. A. Mathieu, Montreal. Both speakers were given an enthusiastic reception.

Mr. Moore devoted most of his time to "correcting false impressions created by the official organ of the Civil Service Association regarding the attitude of organized labor toward civil servants." He criticized the methods adopted in the controversy over the plebiscite regarding affiliation with labor and insisted the members of the Association had used unfair tactics.

Speaking of the action of Hon. N. W. Powell at the time of the threatened strike of the postal carriers, Mr. Moore stated: "Members of all unions are looking forward to the time when there will be men in Canada to administer laws who will be broad enough to give a measure of democracy such as exists in the Mother Country."

Mr. Frank James, president of the Associated Federal Employees, who occupied the chair, stated the formation of the union was for the protection of economic interests of all. Isolated efforts were not felt in the past. There was a time when the civil servant considered himself being apart from everything, that he lived in a rarefied atmosphere of officialdom; he had plenty of money and little work, and it was sacrilege to even suggest that he join an organization.

Those days, however, were passed. The general public was beginning to regard the civil servant as a fellow-worker, and poorly paid fellow-worker at that. He did not think there was anyone now who would contest the statement that there was necessity for a Civil Service organization of some sort. The whole question was as to how they could obtain the best results. In the past when civil servants had grievances, their case attracted little attention except in Ottawa. Farmers did not care, and manufacturers would not worry. Trade unionists had their hands full and would not interfere in the case of an organization unless affiliated with them. Small wonder that the civil servant had failed to obtain much.

Lantern slides were shown during the evening illustrating what the union was fighting for, which contained many witty allusions to members of the Cabinet and five topics in the service.

On the other hand, when civil servants affiliated with labor, they proclaimed their identity with an army of almost 300,000 workers within the Dominion. They secured for themselves the moral support of these men, who henceforth would be organized workers in a class apart as a white collar crowd, but as brothers-in-arms who have as much call upon their assistance as any group of organized workers in the country. No Government could afford to treat this lightly. The moral pressure was bound to win respect.

TOTAL STRENGTH OF UNITED STATES ARMY.

Official figures announced by the United States War Department recently show the total strength of the United States Army to be 12,141 officers and 198,828 men, as of November 3, the total being 210,969. The number of troops in Germany is 14,306, including 630 officers and 13,676 men. There are 632 officers and 18,315 men in the Philippines. The smallest representation abroad are those in France, which consist of 95 officers and 6 men, and in England 3 officers and 2 men.

National guard enlisted strength was, as of November 1, 67,552, about one-third the authorized strength, which is 192,450. The largest guard organization is that of New York State, numbering 8,848 men. Texas, with 7,995, comes second; Pennsylvania third with 6,811, and Wisconsin fourth with 5,271.

terminating in the canyon-like scenery of the Saguenay. We approach Cape Eternity, a towering mass of rock that looks down upon us in isolated grandeur, making our craft look like a microscopic organism in some spectral picture.
Our steamer traverses a little bay, and we gaze spellbound at Cape Trinity—the lowest of its three elevations graced by a huge statue of the Virgin—which for 30 years has gazed with seeming compassion on the waters below—impervious to the elements, a thank-offering of a devout Catholic.
These mightiest of all the promontories that tower above the dark waters of the majestic Saguenay, form a fitting climax to a trip that has no equal for awe-inspiring grandeur and panoramic charm.

The new demand asks that three classes be formed with pay at the rate of $2,500, $2,300 and $2,100, respectively.

The demand concludes with the following statement: "That the city agree not to keep in its employ in the police force after January 1, 1921, any constable or detective, or any officer of the grade of captain or under who is not a member in good standing of the Federal Police Union No. 62, and further agree not to keep in its employ any police recruit who has not become a member of the same organization sixty days after his admission into the police force."

BARTON TOWNSHIP I.L.P. TO CONTEST ELECTION.

The Barton township elections was the main topic which interested last week's meeting of the Mount Hamilton Labor party in the Mission hall. W. A. Crockett, M.L.A., presided. After discussing municipal affairs a committee was named, with Charles Jamieson as convener, to act as an election committee, locate suitable candidates and outline a plan of campaign.

Deputy Reeve Austin Smith and Councilor King are the present Labor members of the township council. While it is not intended to hog next year's council it was thought that an effort should be made to elect three Laborites. An open meeting of the branch will be held on Monday, Nov. 22, when following the report of the new election committee, candidates will be named to carry the I.L.P. banner.

The committee that handled the gas question and conferred with the township officials was praised for its successful efforts. It was reported that besides increasing the pressure to eight ounces, the company had promised to supply gas to 28 new applicants. Township residents are advised to take note of the time and date on which the gas pressure is unsatisfactory, and report to the company.

EDMONTON PRINTERS' STRIKE

Having come to a deadlock in scale negotiations, the job printers of Edmonton came out on strike last week for a minimum wage of one dollar per hour.
This wage has been paid for the past six months to both news and job printers all over the province of Alberta, the only exception being the job printers of Edmonton, who felt that they should have been paid one dollar per hour six months ago, but in view of having a signed contract with the employers, lived up to its terms till the date of its expiration on October 31, 1920, and it is in negotiating a new agreement the deadlock has occurred.

HOOP'S CANDIDATURE STANDS.

The name of W. H. Hoop or any other candidate nominated by the Dominion Labor party at its convention last Wednesday in Winnipeg, will not be withdrawn from the divic aldermanic slate, Labor leaders announced on Friday. The election committee, appointed to handle the affairs of the Dominion Labor party, has no power to alter the slate or make radical changes not approved by the party.

MANITOBA MINIMUM WAGE BOARD MEETS.

There was a meeting of the Manitoba Minimum Wage Board at the Bureau of Labor Offices last week but only routine matters were up for consideration. Those present were Mrs. Nash, representing the employers, and James Winning, representing Labor, with Ed McGrath, secretary. Steps have been taken to fill the two vacancies on the board. Mr. McGrath announced. Notices have been sent to the employers and to Labor asking them to suggest three names each. From the six names submitted the Government will appoint an employer's representative and a Labor representative.
