

Trinity University.

TRINITY University was constituted by a Royal Charter, bearing date 15th July, 1852, and was thereby endowed with all such powers of conferring degrees in the various Faculties as are enjoyed by the Universities of Great Britain.

The fundamental object of the University is to supply to the people of the Province an academic education of the highest kind, in which secular instruction should not be dissociated from religious teaching. The University is under the control of the Church of England, but open to all who desire to avail themselves of its advantages.

GOVERNMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY.

By the Provisions of the Royal Charter, the government of the University is vested in the Corporation, which body, by an Act of the Legislature of the Province of Canada (15 Vic. ch. 32), is composed of: 1. The Bishops of the five dioceses into which the original Diocese of Toronto has been divided; 2. The Trustees (three in number); 3. The Council.

The Council is made up of the following classes of members:

EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS.

The Chancellor and Ex-Chancellors of the University, the Provost and Professors in Arts and Divinity in Trinity College.

MEMBERS NOMINATED

By the Bishops of Toronto, Huron, Ontario, and Niagara, four members each, representing their respective dioceses.

By each Medical, Musical, or Theological College affiliated to the University, one member.
