The Grand Lodge was opened in Simple form.

The acting Grand Secretary read the summons issued by the commands of the M. W. Grand Master, calling this Especial Communication of the Grand Lodge, after which the Grand Master was pleased to say that he felt it his duty to comply with the request made to him to lay, with Masonic Ceremonies, the corner stone of the new building where the Masons of Montreal intend to hold their meetings, and he was glad to find so large a number of the Fraternity respond to his call, shewing their willingness to assist him on this interesting occasion. The acting Grand Director of Ceremonies was then instructed to form the Procession and proceed to the site of the building, corner of Notre Dame Street and Place D'Arms.

On arriving at the ground, the procession opened out, when the Grand Officers marched through to the spot where the stone was to be laid, the east end facing Notre Dame Street. The M. W. Grand Master and other
