QUEBEC.

Montreal, June 24.—It is stated here today, although the rumor cannot be confirmed, that Lord Glenoe will in the near future resign the presidency of the Bank of Montreal, to be succeeded by the present vice-president, Hon. Geo. A. Drummond.

Montreal, June 25.—Word was received here today that Mr. Languevin had decided to throw open for settlement all the land which the late Mgr. Tache had received from the crown and which belonged to the diocese of St. Boniface.

Mrs. Henri Legan of St. Pierre, M.Q., committed suicide tonight by jumping over the bridge crossing the Berri street tunnel, Notre Dame street.

The minister of marine has wired the pilots that if they go to work he will give them a commission of enquiry during recess.

Montreal, June 25.—The Star cable says: London, June 25.—This was Irving day with the Canadian and other colonial troops. Leaving Chelsea barracks in martial order, headed by the band of the Grenadier Guards, with an escort of London mounted police, they proceeded to the Lyceum amid the hearty cheering of the crowds. The Lyceum was very gay for the occasion, with the Union Jack and Royal Standard specially arranged over the stage.

Mr. Henry Irving was greeted with deafening cheers as he entered to take the part of Corporal Brewster, an old veteran of the Scots Guards, in Conan Doyle's play, A Story of Waterloo. Several political allusions were introduced into the play. At one point the old corporal was told that the Boers were lordling it over the Britisher in South Africa.

"Ah," said the corporal, "that would no have done for the Boer." This brought down the house, especially as it was known that Mr. Chamberlain was present.

In the interval the officer called upon the colonials for cheers for Mr. Chamberlain.

The colonials came forward and bowed in response to the very hearty reception.

In the second part of the programme, The Bells, Irving's earliest masterpiece, was presented.

Montreal, June 27.—The secretary of the plot committee which has been organized to celebrate the centenary of the capture of Quebec by the British, has declared that he would be in the city today. The six actors that are away today were all in charge of good plots, so if the strikers do not go to work tomorrow, they will find their fat jobs have disappeared.

It is stated here that Mr. Brunon, M. P. for Richelieu, will soon be appointed joint deputy minister of justice, as the French members of the commons are complaining that there is no one in that department conversant with the French language.

Mr. Paul Brochu arrived home today from Quebec, and was warmly received by the clergy. The archbishop-elect will be consecrated in the Cathedral August 10th, Mgr. Regin of Quebec officiating.

Admiral and Lady Erskine at the Deaf and Dumb Institution—Lady Erskine's Kindness.

Halifax, June 28.—An interesting incident occurred at the Deaf and Dumb Institution in this city this evening. There are eighty-one pupils in the school, whose public examination was held on Saturday. Admiral and Lady Erskine were present and were much pleased with what they saw. At tea hour today Sir James and Lady Erskine dropped in upon the school again. After supper the children were addressed by the admiral, and then Lady Erskine went around among them and gave each pupil a new twenty-five cent note. The children were wished a pleasant holiday, for they scatter for the vacation tomorrow. Lady Erskine learned that one of the deaf mutes, a little girl named Burin, had no home, and would have to remain in the school while the other scholars were off enjoying themselves till autumn, so she offered to take the child with her to admiralty house and allow her to pass the vacation with her own family and become a playmate for her own little girl. The offer of course was gladly accepted, and Bessie Mayo was happy.

Enthusiastic Celebration of Victoria's Diamond Jubilee.

Special Service in All Saints Church—A New Flag for the Grammar School—Oration, Sports and Royal Salute.

St. Andrews, June 23.—In no part of the wide domain over which the Union Jack of England flies was there a more enthusiastic and loyal celebration of the diamond jubilee of the great and good Empress Queen Victoria than in this, the shiretown of Charlotte county.

The erection of numerous flagpoles throughout the town during the week preceding indicated how general was the desire to duly celebrate this most unique event in the history of the empire. Sunday, the 20th inst., the anniversary of the Queen's accession to the throne (although the nation was coming down in torrents) witnessed the largest display of bunting ever seen in the town. The members of the orders of the Knights of Pythias and of the A. O. U. W., wearing the regalia of their respective orders, marched to All Saints church, and were seated in pews reserved for their accommodation. The church was neatly and appropriately decorated. The service specially ordered for the day was read by the venerable rector, Canon Ketchum, and Rev. E. W. Simons, curate. The latter gentleman delivered a well and thoroughly prepared sermon founded upon the text 1st Samuel, 12th chap., 2nd, 3rd and 4th verses, which was listened to with marked attention by the large congregation present. The special hymns were heartily sung by the choir and congregation, especially the opening one, the National Anthem, sung as a procession. What will be the weather tomorrow, was during the closing hours of Sunday matter of serious consideration to every one; but rain or shine, it was the general determination the celebration should be carried out in right royal and loyal fashion.

The morn of Monday found bright sunshine and favorable wind, and from the peep o' day the note of preparation could be heard and seen. Streamers of flags crossed Water street from the school to the town hall, and from the flagpoles the blood red flag of England, alternating with our dominion ensign, kissed the breeze, and from improvised flag-staffs, run out of the windows of the houses that intervals throughout its entire length, and from the flagpoles the blood red flag of England, alternating with our dominion ensign, kissed the breeze, and from improvised flag-staffs, run out of the windows of the houses that intervals throughout its entire length, and from the flagpoles the blood red flag of England, alternating with our dominion ensign, kissed the breeze, and from improvised flag-staffs, run out of the windows of the houses that intervals throughout its entire length.

In the afternoon the children of the town schools assembled at the Grammar school to witness the hoisting of the handsome new flag which was presented by the trustees of the school. The ceremony was made by W. D. Forster, chairman of the board, and the flag was gracefully hoisted by Miss Hildebrand. The children, numbering about three hundred, were then dismissed into their homes, and the school was closed.

Amherst, June 25.—Captain I. Gaben of the schooner L'Edna, of St. John, on Friday afternoon at Shediac fell from a pile of deals on to the rocks, a distance of 25 feet. He was badly cut on both sides of his head, and it is feared, has sustained internal injuries. He belongs to Port Lorne, Annapolis Co.

Eight vessels are now loading deals at Shulue for Prescott, Gillespie & Co., and others.

On Wednesday last at Perth, Ont., C. L. Benedict of the Bank of Montreal, was united in marriage to Miss Mary McLaren, daughter of Senator McLaren.

One that one of the gunners, John Dolby, a Royal Artillery pensioner, was a member of the battery serving in Spain, at San Sebastian, and assisted in the firing of miniguns on the death of King William IV. A base ball match was played on Hamilton green in the afternoon. At sunset the church and town belfries rung and the evening gun discharged. The festivities of the day were closed by a fine pyrotechnic display, under the direction of H. Owen Rigby and Herbert Lamb.

The stone and residences on Water street were brilliantly illuminated. In fact, the street was a blaze of light. In other parts of the town an effective illumination was had. Noticeable amongst them was that of Dr. Harry Cove, H. Owen Rigby, G. H. Lamb, W. Whitlock, King Greenlow, Mrs. Paul, etc. Taken as a whole, the celebration was of the heartiest character. Everybody seemed determined to have a good time; mirth and jollity prevailed. No incident occurred to mar the pleasure of the celebration, which will live in the memory of the town, whose citizens, one and all, hope that God will spare the Queen long to reign over us.

A huge bonfire was lighted by William Townsend on Chamcook Mountain, the blaze of which was seen miles away in every direction.

Cornell Wins the 'Varsity Race. Foughtwinn, N. Y. June 25.—Cornell won, time, 20 minutes 34 seconds. Yale was second by three lengths and a half; time, 20:44. Harvard came in third, five lengths astern of Yale; time, 21 minutes. Cornell's time by miles: First mile, 4:43; second mile, 10:29; third mile, 15:34; 4-5, 20:34.

American grit, American methods and American training won today as against American grit coupled with English methods and English training. A crew trained under an American coach won from two other American college crews in an eight oar contest, the two other crews having studied, the one under an American coach with mixture of English and American methods, and the other discarding all the American teachings and methods and importing an English coach in an endeavor to prove superiority for Henly methods. No such contest has occurred in this country before. Cornell University has not been able to meet Yale University on water since 1875, and then, as today, she defeated the boys of the blue.

Cornell men are generally boastful of their naval record, and perhaps it is not without reason when it is remembered that out of the last thirty races, under Courtney's instruction, only three have been lost, one by the boat swamping. As in today's race, their crews are invariably the lightest, the crew which defeated Yale's freshmen in 1888 having been called "Courtney's Babies." Courtney's stroke is typically American, being shorter than the English system as taught by Mr. Lehmann, who coached Harvard in this race, the men keeping the back straight and giving a powerful leg drive. Experts have claimed that it could never be kept up in a long race, but, as in today's contest, Cornell's greatest victories and time have been made over the four mile course. Their victory today is doubly pleasing to them, as they have been at last able to show the way to the Yale blue, which opportunity has been refused them for years by Yale, and at the same time test their style with a crew rowing the regular English school system. Briggs, the Cornell stroke, weighs 145 pounds against 154 pounds in the Harvard boat, and a heavier weight in Yale's. One remarkable thing in Cornell's crew is that the faculty allow no man to row unless all his examinations have been passed.
