SUDDEN DEATH. Constable James Prince, One of the Best Known Men in the City,

Found Dead in Bed. St. John loses one of its oldest and best known citizens in the death of James Prince, which took place suddenly Thursday morning at his residence, 57 Dorchester street.

A member of the family went to call Mr. Prince yesterday morning, but received no response. Investigation disclosed the sad fact that death had visited him during his sleep. Death was due to heart failure. Mr. Prince was widely known throughout the city. For the past twenty-seven years he has been connected with the city government as marshall and tax collector. He was born in Monoton seventy-eight years ago and has been a resident of this city for forty years. During the first years of his residence in St. John shipbuilding was the staple industry and Mr. Prince engaged extensively in the supplying of ship timber. With the decline of the shipbuilding industry, Mr. Prince was obliged to give up his first calling. He then entered the employ of the city, of which ever since he has been a valued and faithful ser-

Mr. Prince comes of Loyalist stock. His grandfather was Rev. John Prince, a Wesleyan clergyman, who, after graduating from Oxford University, England, served a brief pastorate at East Stafford, Berkshire county, and later emigrated to Massachusetts. His son, Thomas Prince, came with the Loyalists to this country at the termination of the American revolution.

Mr. Prince, besides a family of three sons and one daughter, is survived by a brother, William Prince, of Moncton. Rev. John Prince, of Moncton, died some years ago, was another brother. The sons of the deceased are: Henry N., of Sunbury county; James A., of Cambridgeport (Mass.); and Albert E., C. P. R. car service agent, of this city. The daughter is Mrs. H. E. Wilson of St. Catherines. Ont.

BOSTON'S HORSE SHOW.

Many Prominent Society People in Attendance.

BOSTON, April 18-With hundreds of thoroughbred animals entered and a large delegation of people prominent in the Boston horse show was opened today. Among the principal exhibitors are Mrs. John Gerkin of Gravesend, L. I.; Reginald Vanderbilt of Portsmouth, R. I.: Eben D. Jordan of this city, and Courtland H. Smith of Alexandria, Va. Mr. Vanderbilt has entered in 24 classes. Mr. Jordan's stable is represented in 32 classes and Mrs. Gerkin is competing for honors in 24 classes. These three exhibitors are competing chiefly in the heavy harness and hackney classes.

For the first time in several years the Dreamwold stables of Thomas H. Lawson of this city, are not represented at the show. The principal feature of the afternoon and evening awards was the awarding of blue ribbons in two classes to Reginald Vanderbilt. In the novice class for harness horses, driven by owners, Mr. Vanderbilt's black gelding Fad, carried off first honors, while the third prize was awarded to Mr. Jordan's Matchless Denby. In the evening Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Jordan were given the same ranking when novice pairs of harness horses driven by owners were judged. Fad and Fancy were driven together, while Matchless Denby and Gitans were harnessed to the Jordan carriage. ghan in the I. C. ### Our Superb Values in Men's Spring Clothing.

For more than fifteen years we've been selling clothing in Saint John, and almost from the very start we've been leaders in this line. Some of stores selling clothing have been in existence as long and longer. Why is it that we have outstripped them all? Why is it that despite the many new clothing stores which have sprung up within the past few years or so our business still grows bigger and bigger each season? The answer is because we've always sold the most satisfactory clothes that could be made—and always sold them for much less than such good clothes could be bought anywhere else. This is why we are at the top, and this is why we are going to stay there.

Now about Men's Spring Suits at $8.00, $8.50, $10.00. $8.00 Men's Stylish Spring Suits, single breasted sack coats with rounded or bent corners of all-wool tweeds in dark striped patterns, black and grey mixtures
