Mr. Cathels, wife and children returned from Montreal last Friday evening. Miss Helen Hay, of Woodstock, are spending a few days with friends here; they are en route for Sackville to attend the young ladies college. They are the guests of Mrs. James McNally. Dr. James Bridges, who is now practicing in Oranmore, was in the city today. Mr. Hilyard's friends will be pleased to hear he is again slowly improving.

Mr. Henry Graham, St. Stephen, and Mrs. Graham were here yesterday, attending the funeral of Mrs. Graham's mother, Mrs. Colter.

Mr. C. H. B. Fisher has been prepared by the members of the Methodist choir with a handsome gold-headed cane, with an appropriate inscription upon it.

Miss Madeline Fisher is expecting her friend, Miss Mad Church, of Bar Harbor, on Monday, to spend a few weeks with her.

MONCTON. (Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book-store of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.)

JAN. 14.—We may be a quiet and steady going people in Moncton, as a usual thing, but when once we really wake up, we are capable of doing a considerable amount of "hustling." Our record for last week shows what we can do in this line when we really get on our feet.

On Wednesday evening the bread and butter club met at Mrs. F. W. Sumner's, where it was entertained by her, for it has become a very pleasant custom for some of the Moncton ladies to entertain the club two or three times during the winter.

The club is composed almost entirely of young people, who meet at each other's homes once a week, but, of course, when they are invited to hold their regular session at Mrs. Archibald's, Mrs. Sumner's, or Mrs. Borden's house on occasion, it is an especially festive one, and the staples of bread and butter are a delicious and being cast judiciously aside to make room for "all the delicacies of the season." A very delightful evening was spent at the last meeting, in fact it was pronounced the merry of the year, which, to be sure, is young yet.

On Thursday morning, Miss Holstead, daughter of the late C. A. Holstead, of Moncton, was married to Mr. Louis A. Wright, eldest son of Mr. A. L. Wright, of this city. The ceremony was a very quiet one, to the severe illness of a near relative of the bride, took place at her mother's residence on Botolph street, and was performed by the Rev. G. M. Campbell. The bride wore a traveling dress of a gray color, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Miss Holstead was a universal favorite in Moncton, her warm heart, frank, unaffected manner, having won for her the regard of all classes of the community. Her father, who was a very successful business man, had the highest respect for her, and she was not to lose her from our circle altogether, for though Mr. and Mrs. Wright will reside in Salisbury, Mr. Wright being manager of his father's mills in that place, Salisbury is within very easy distance of Moncton. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left by the noon train for Halifax.

The same train bore this happy couple eastward also conveyed Mr. J. W. Binney, collector of customs for this port, to the village of Sackville, where he was married, on Thursday afternoon, to Miss Milner. Mr. and Mrs. Binney passed through Moncton on their way to Sackville, and were accompanied by a number of friends gathered at the station to offer their congratulations. They will probably return at the end of the week. Mr. Binney has many friends in Moncton, where she will be a great acquisition to the society.

On Friday evening, Mrs. H. A. Whitney gave a very pleasant dance, in honor of her daughters, who are at home from Sackville. The party was very successful, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. It is believed the dancing was universally conceded to belong to Miss Cooke.

The week had begun and continued with so much gaiety that it was decided to wind it up in a unique manner, and the method of dissipation finally settled upon took the form of a drive, in which some sixteen couples took part. The party was given by Mrs. A. H. Bealmon, Mrs. C. F. Hamilton, Mrs. A. H. Bealmon, and Mrs. David Dickson.

Assembling at the Brunswick hotel, the procession started in the direction of the Shore Road, led by Mr. C. F. Hamilton, and followed by a number of other couples. After a two hours' drive, the party returned to the Brunswick hotel, where a small and early dance, which broke up at the very early hour of 11:30. It was a most enjoyable affair from beginning to end, and Mr. Hamilton, who originated the idea, and to a large extent, carried it out, is entitled to a vote of thanks from those who spent so pleasant an evening.

Miss Hensinger, who has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Thorne, of St. John, returned last week. Mr. Allan Wilson, who has been spending some time at his home near Fredericton, returned to Moncton last week.

Mrs. W. A. Lawton, of Shediac, is in town, visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Dickson, Steadman street. Miss Ann returned to her home in Halifax, where she is attending the Ladies college.

Any person sending picture, will copy and return. Cash with order. BOSTON PHOTO AND COPYING CO. 96 King Street, St. John, N.B.

Miss Hudson, of Pictou, is in town visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Taylor. Miss Holmes, of Summerside, is in town visiting her friend, Miss Harris. Many friends will regret to hear that he has again been quite ill, but I am glad to say that he is now much better.

Mr. J. A. Workman, of the I. C. R. audit office, has been very ill for some time, but is slowly improving. I believe his trouble was congestion of the lungs. One bright and hospitable house which will be very useful this winter, is that of Mr. George Archibald. Mrs. Archibald having lost her mother, Mrs. Lindsay, of her many friends in her bereavement. Her sister, Miss Lindsay, is spending some weeks with her.

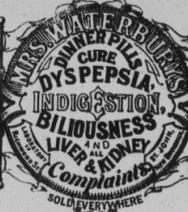

Mrs. F. H. Kisteen, of Fredericton, is in town spending a fortnight with her friend, Miss Barnes, of Main street. Rev. Harold E. Smith, of St. George, preached in St. George's church, Sunday morning and evening. He was the guest of Mr. George Taylor of the I. C. R.

Mr. E. M. Estey returned on Monday from Montreal, Mrs. Estey remaining for a few weeks longer, visiting her friends. Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, of Dorchester, paid a visit to Moncton on Monday. Mr. Charles Ewert, of Sackville, was in town on Saturday.

SACKVILLE. (Progress is for sale in Sackville at H. Moore's bookstore.) JAN. 13.—The pleasant excitement that has prevailed for the last week or two was brought to a happy close at St. Paul's church on Thursday evening, when Miss Lucy Milner, one of our popular young ladies, was united in holy matrimony to Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, of Dorchester. The bride exhibited great presence of mind under the battery of a hundred pairs of bright eyes, to which she was subjected as she stood at the altar. Her C. E. Wiggin, rector of the church, performed the ceremony in an impressive manner. The bride and groom left on the C. P. R. for a trip to Montreal, where, I hear, they are registered at the Windsor. They were followed by the usual emblems of good luck, viz. old slippers and rice. The presents were beautiful, coming from friends far and near. The bride's gift was an exquisite gold bracelet, set with diamonds and pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Binny expect to make their future home in Moncton. I hear there are one or two more of our young maidens who are thinking seriously of following Miss Milner's example, but they take "Coppertop's" advice they will be in no hurry to change their state of "undivided mediocrity." Among the strangers in town on Thursday were: Lady Smith, Mrs. Johna Chandler, Miss Fannie Chandler (Dorchester), Miss Neale Robinson (St. John), Mr. J. W. Y. Smith (Dorchester), Mrs. Jacques (Moncton), Mr. and Mrs. Nose (Amherst), Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ketchum (Amherst). Mr. J. B. Ayer went to Moncton on Wednesday. Mr. F. MacDonnell spent Monday and Tuesday in Dorchester. Mr. Humphrey went to St. John on Thursday. I regret very much to hear Miss Edna Ford goes to Amherst, next week, to have a painful operation performed on her foot, which will make it impossible to leave her home for some two or three months. Miss Mabel Ayer entertained a few of her friends on Thursday evening at her father's residence on Upper Sackville. The young people pronounced it a very enjoyable evening. After playing cards for a few hours, the sweet strains of a waltz brought the dancers to the floor, and soon the spacious parlor was a sea of hills, the moving feet of the young people. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. MacDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Hensinger, Mrs. T. Estabrook, Missa Estabrook, Miss Black, Missa Smith, Miss Knapp, Miss Fawcett, Mr. Murray, Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Hensinger, Mr. Rennie, Mr. F. Black, Mr. Foster, Mr. Dincock. I was glad to inform friends of Mrs. Christopher Miller, that she is fast recovering from her recent indisposition. Owing to the increase of business, the Merchants' Bank has had to add another member to its staff, in the person of Mr. Roy Ford. This speaks well for the popular manager, Mr. F. MacDonnell.

THE HEEL OF THE GRANBY RUBBER.

When the Canadian public universally adopts a particular make of goods, as they have done in the case of the Granby Rubbers and Overshoes, you may be sure there is some good reason for it, and that reason is a safe one for you to follow.

Really, there is nothing equal to them in Style, Fit, Comfort, and Durability. Every dealer sells them.

Young Art in Chicago. "I must tell you a good story on a young student in my place," said an artist whose studio is on State street. "You must use my name, for I don't want to injure the young man. He had expressed a wish to make some Scriptural paintings, and I told him to go ahead. He selected for his subject the killing of Abel by Cain. On the whole it was creditable, except for some innovations. For instance, he had put a sandbag in the hand of Cain and in the background he had a patrol wagon coming to the scene full tilt, drawn by a camel. I would have given money to retain that painting, but the young artist destroyed it in spite of my remonstrances and offers."
