

THE SAFETY OF "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MAY BE TAKEN FOR YEARS

The Ideal Remedy For Young and Old

Nature's gifts do us good, if used judiciously. We eat bread from babyhood to old age without ever tiring of it. We drink water, year in and year out, with the greatest benefit to our health. So, too, we eat fruit in season and are better for the change of diet. This is true, because such things are the natural foods and drinks of mankind. It is for this reason that "Fruit-a-tives" may be used for years in correcting some ill of the body. As is well known, "Fruit-a-tives" is made of the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes.

Just as fresh fruit may be eaten at every meal, so "Fruit-a-tives" may be taken every night for 20 years or more with the greatest benefit. The absolute safety of "Fruit-a-tives" has been a great factor in its success. Those who suffered with chronic troubles such as Constipation, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, etc., naturally took a number of boxes of "Fruit-a-tives."

As they became better, they found that instead of being compelled to increase the dose, as in most medicines, they were decreasing it, and gradually taking fewer doses.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or original box, 25c. At dealers, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Mr. Hays Accepts.

T. H. Estabrooks received a telegram yesterday from C. M. Hays, of the Grand Trunk Railway, accepting the invitation extended to him by the St. John Board of Trade to be the guest of honor at a banquet during his visit to the city next week. The banquet will be held on the evening of Thursday, the 20th. Arrangements have not yet been completed but the affair will be taken hold of vigorously by the Board of Trade and a large attendance is expected.

New Car Sheds.

The St. John Railway Company yesterday began construction of their new car sheds on Westworth street, on the site of the G. S. Fisher roofing plant. The shed is to provide accommodation for 24 cars and when completed will be the main car shed, taking the place of those now in the North End, which will be used for storage purposes only. The new car shed will be of concrete, steel and brick construction, practically fireproof. The construction is to be carried on by day's work and as it will be January next before delivery is made of the steel work, it is unlikely that more than the concrete foundations will be completed this fall.

Accident to Victoria.

Star liner Victoria met with an accident at Palmer's wharf yesterday, injuring her wheel. The majestic vessel went to Frederickton in her place and reached there about midnight.

LARGE CROWD FROM CITY ATTEND LOCH LOMOND FAIR

Some Politics in Speeches Delivered at Ben Lomond House Dinner--Wm. Quinton as an Independent Candidate--Classes Well Contested--Long List of Prize Winners.

Yesterday the annual fair at Loch Lomond was attended by a large crowd. The exhibits of cattle, horses and other classes were numerous and it was one of the best fairs that has been held in that section for many years. There were a large number from the city and other parts of the county present. The headquarters for visitors was the new Ben Lomond House, and here Mrs. Barker looked after hundreds of guests.

Mr. Poole and John O'Neill of the city market were also present.

After the opening exercises His Worship the Mayor made a brief and appropriate speech. Ald. McGoldrick spoke at some length regarding the fair.

Appreciates Fine Cup Awarded by Canadian Bank of Commerce.

To the Editor of The Standard.

Sir,—I wish to thank through your columns the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the splendid medal awarded me for the champion ram in the Cheviot class at the Dominion exhibition.

I am glad to know that the banking institutions are taking such interest in the farmers generally, and particularly in sheep raising in our province. To my mind if the same interest had been taken years ago, the sheep raising would have a much better standing than it has at the present time.

There are now thousands of acres of land lying vacant which should be used for sheep raising. Trusting many of our farmers will make some effort to put a few sheep on their farms and care for them properly and be content to wait for results.

I am, yours,

J. E. McAULEY.

BUDGET FROM DOSTON GIRL

Dear Good Old Dominie Defends the Hobble Skirt—Do You Use the Equal Suffrage Cook Book?

Boston, Oct. 8.—Bostonians looked fearfully over the Charles River Basin on the occasion of the recent races when canoe sailing was the main feature of the events. Everyone hereabouts is familiar with the sights of the craft paddled quietly along the upper waters of the Charles, but there were gasps of apprehension and involuntary shudders of the eyes as the slim canoes dipped their sails before the wind until it seemed they must be swamped. The sight adds a touch of picturesqueness to the beautiful basin.

Boston art circles are all twisted into tangents, as it were, by a controversy which has arisen regarding the proposed figures for the Public Library plaza. That advocate of civic righteousness and journalistic purity, "The Boston Common" has assailed the trustees of the library for disregarding the architects of the building and the municipal art commission in considering the art works to be placed on the long barren pedestals which front the building. Others rise to the defence of Bela Pratt's proposed seated figures and announce that when the city gets so good a thing everybody ought to be satisfied. What the outcome will be remains to be seen, but the discussion waxed wrathful for the time being.

Here a minister of the Baptist denomination defending the hobble skirt. One of the Hub's widest known and most revered preachers has advocated the large part of a sermon to upholding woman in her vagaries of fashion, her frivolity and changeableness. The pastor maintains that woman could not be so loyal and steadfast in her devotion, were she not allowed the outlet of "ziggle, gable, goble and gill." He declares that the hobble skirt is by long odds the ugliest fashion that women have adopted in many years, but withal it is more to be desired and less detestable than the dressy gowns and drabs of the Quakers and Shakers, and far better than that all women should dress alike all the time. He has Virgilian warrant for his belief that the woman is a creature of changeable quantity. The purveyors of fashion, who need the money at all seasons of the year, will doubtless vote the perfect dear.

New England women who swear by the White House Cook Book may have to change their allegiance. From the same centre of high class dinners and swaggy breakfasts, from the feasting and frivolous city across which runs the great national free lunch route, comes the Equal Suffrage Cook Book, led by the Washington Equal Suffrage Association, Dr. Corn Eaton Smith, author, a living refutation of the familiar charge that red hot suffragism is synonymous with the cold cook stove. The many favorable press comments on this publishing venture of the Washington Suffrage Society are an indication that the use of the "woman's place in the household" is about played out, so far as it refers to the question of equal suffrage. One is reminded, indeed, of the recent incident of the Kaiser's leaving a letter to General von Gumbert, women in which she urged her good subjects to stay at home and be good wives and mothers. Among the many tactless remarks received was one in which it was stated that on account of existing economic conditions 4,000,000 women of the Fatherland are compelled to be wage earners as well as mothers. In general the same majestic in such a return must have shocked the Empress, though as sternness of this kind is becoming quite as common in monarchies as in free republics. Even in China, the land of swaddle-footed female slaves, one reads of women going on hunger strike as a protest against the oppression and unchangeable laws against the woman, subject first to parents, and then to husband and husband's family and, in widowhood, to her minor sons. As marriages in China are reported to have fallen off about 80 per cent, it looks as if there were not much west in the big world-wide woman's movement.

WEDDINGS.

Killam-Elliott.

A marriage event that means the loss to St. John of one of its energetic workers in church and charity circles, as well as a most useful member of numerous social circles, was solemnized at No. 39 Wellington Row yesterday afternoon, the home of Mrs. Elliott widow of Elias W. Elliott. The bride was Miss Julia Hill Elliott, eldest daughter of the late citizen and the groom Amasa E. Killam, of Moncton, bridge and building inspector for the I. C. R. The guests aside from the immediate family, were limited to a few life-long friends.

Rev. A. B. Cohoe, pastor of the First Baptist church, Halifax, formerly in charge of Brussels street church, this city, performed the marriage ceremony. There were no attendants. The bride was dressed in her touring suit of gray cloth, green trimmed, and a smart hat. The C. P. R. express took the newly married couple on their honeymoon, but before leaving the bride's home a lunch was served.

The itinerary of Mr. and Mrs. Killam's wedding trip is extensive and will take nearly two months. After a few days spent in Montreal they will proceed to Chicago, thence to Denver, Col., where Mr. Killam will attend the sessions of the Bridge Builders' Association of America, of which he is a vice-president. The return trip will be made via Texas and Mexico in which territories several weeks will be spent. Mr. and Mrs. Killam will reside at No. 54 Highland street, Moncton.

The profusion of exquisite gifts showered upon the bride indicated in measure the genuine esteem in which she has been held. Mr. Killam's gift was a necklace of whole pearls with sunburst pendant. Because of her long association with Brussels street Baptist church and Sunday school and her untiring efforts in behalf of that body, aside from a warm personal friendship, the congregation and school tendered the bride a charming cake beautifully carved and set in gold brooch fashion. This was presented at a special meeting a few evenings ago.

In the Brussels street Baptist church in the corps of Associated Charities workers and in several other public capacities the removal of the bride in today's happy event will be greatly felt.

OBITUARY.

Robert Melrose.

St. John lost one of the oldest and most highly respected residents yesterday by the death of Robert Melrose, which occurred at two o'clock in the afternoon at his residence, 89 Seely street. The deceased, who was in his 86th year, is survived by one son, Arthur R. Melrose, of Messrs. Vassie and Co., Ltd., and three grandchildren. His wife predeceased him by about three years. Mr. Melrose has not been well for some time, but the illness which ended in his death only commenced on Saturday. Heart failure was the immediate cause.

Mr. Melrose was born in Galashiels, Scotland, in 1826, and learned his trade there. In 1854 he removed to St. John where he had since resided. For many years he followed the business of contractor and builder in which he was eminently successful. He erected many buildings for the late John M. Robertson and after the fire was associated with the late Michael Flood, The Haymarket square block, the residence of the late Governor Boyd and many other large buildings are monuments to his skill. During the latter years of his active

Log Stealer Suspected.

For some time past logs belonging to the St. John River Log Driving Co. have been missing from the mills along the water front, particularly those of John E. Moore and Messrs. Stetson and Cutler, and it is expected that some persons who make a practice of lumber stealing in this way will soon be rounded up. Alex. Knodda, who looks after the logs for the company, has recently missed a quantity of lumber, and has suspicions as to the guilty party.
