The Daughters of the Empire are always to the front in any progressive work in the interests of the town. At their monthly meeting last Monday evening the sum of twenty-five dollars was voted to the Rev. E. B. Hooper for comforts for returned soldiers at River Glade; also twenty-five dollars for a prize in the Sociological Department at Mount Allison University. Sociology being most in vogue with the work now being carried on by the Lord Sackville Chapter Daughters of the Empire.

Another splendid work started by the ladies of the town was the teaching of singing in the public schools of Sackville, instruction in tonic songs being given under the able direction of Prof. Eckman of Mount Allison Conservatory of Music. There is usually a certain amount of singing in the school, but this is a new subject, but despite this fact good progress is being made.

Mr. T. D. Pickard, president and general manager of The Panuko Pup and Power Co., Limited, spent Sunday in town and left this evening for Antigonish, where he remained until Monday when he left for Vancouver, B. C. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Mrs. Charles Harris of Mount A. B. A., 10; Miss Nell Harris, B. A., 14 and Miss M. Buffet, B. A., 11, have left for Europe. They will spend the winter in London, the spring in Paris and before returning will visit the battlefields of the Great War.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, president of the N. B. and P. E. J. Methodist Conference, returned from Charlottetown, P. E. I., on Saturday, where he spent several days attending a convention in connection with the Inter-Church Forward Movement.

Mrs. G. M. Campbell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Pickard, has returned.

Mrs. Herbert Ross, of St. John's, N. B., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Smith, St. John.

Mrs. Cecil Hicks is visiting at Sunnyside, P. E. I., with the sister of her sister, Mrs. Clifford Williams.

Mrs. P. G. Mahoney and Miss Gusie Mahoney of Montreal are visiting in St. John, guest of Mrs. M. D. Swaine, 234 Douglas Ave.

Mrs. Frank Phinney and Miss Ethel Johnson were visitors in Amherst on Monday.

The One-in-a-While met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. H. MacKenzie. In spite of the storm the attendance was excellent. The subject for consideration was "Australia and New Zealand." Mrs. J. M. Palmer was in charge of the program. Taking up Australia, very excellent and interesting papers were read on the growth and development of Australia by Mrs. Palmer; The Aborigines by Mrs. W. G. Watson and The Flora and Fauna by Mrs. H. E. Thomas. Mrs. C. F. Wiggins dealt with New Zealand along the same lines, referring to the closing of the so-called socialist government of that country, which has practically eliminated strikes. The co-operation of capital and labor, advanced free education, and extensive team work were extolled.

Mrs. Hammond sang several English and Italian love songs. The president of the Club, Mrs. Horton, referred to the bereavement which has come to three of the active Club members, Mrs. H. E. Bigelow, Mrs. Herbert M. Wood and Mrs. B. G. Borden. The secretary, Mrs. A. H. McCready was asked to convey to these members the sympathy of the Club.

Mr. W. C. Milner of the Dominion Archives was in Sackville last week.

Mr. Thomas Dixon, who has been here for the past four months on a visit to his son, Mr. J. W. Dixon, returned last week to Renton, Wash., where he resides with another son, Dr. C. L. Dixon. Mr. Dixon, who has not been here for the past eight years, had a very pleasant time during his stay here since August 2nd. His many Sackville friends were naturally delighted to see him.

Prof. John Freeman of Truro, a native of Point de Bute, has been attending the Dominion Convention at Sussex, and was one of the speakers.

Mrs. B. R. Snowdon of Woodport, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. M. G. Siddons, Port Eglon, has returned home.

Mr. W. J. E. Snow representing the International Magazine Company, was in Sackville recently.

About thirty members of Ruby Robinson Lodge paid a visit to Marjorie Gordon, Amherst on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Jerry Holland, C.P.R. police at Sackville station, has been spending his vacation with relatives in Boston and Bangor, Me. He returned a few days ago.

HAS A WAR RECORD.

Captain Edwin Landy, R. N. R., hero of several thrilling achievements in saving torpedoed vessels during the great war, arrived in port on Friday last in command of the new C. P. O. S. freighter Montcalm, 9,000 tons. One of his former commands, the old Montcalm, had a very important part in the work of defeating the efforts of the Hun in their submarine campaign. Captain Landy, it will be recalled, acted as engineer in bringing one of his ships into a French port after she had been torpedoed and given up for lost.

The Executive of the Sackville Local Council of Women met at the home of Mrs. Freeman-Lake, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Freeman-Lake presiding. In addition to the other officers, the presidents of the five societies in affiliation were all present: Mrs. C. F. Wiggins of St. Paul's W. A., Mrs. Peters of the Woman's Civic Council, Mrs. M. E. Humphrey of the Methodist Ladies' Aid, Mrs. F. T. Tingley of the W. O. U. and Mrs. Freeman-Lake of the I.O.D.E.

The first business was the moving of a resolution of sympathy to Mrs. E. C. Borden, president of the Sackville Local Council, who has recently suffered bereavement in the death of her daughter, the late Mrs. Elaine Borden Dickie. The resolution was supported in appreciative speeches by several of the ladies present and passed, a copy of which was forwarded to Mrs. Borden. The minutes of the National Executive held recently in Hamilton, provided interesting discussion. The National President, Mrs. Sanford, reported an interview with her Majesty, Queen Mary at Buckingham Palace, the Queen expressing great interest in the work of the Canadian Council, and also her deep appreciation of the wonderful welcome Canada was giving her son. Her Majesty was profoundly touched by the warmth of feeling displayed. A large amount of business was transacted at the close of which the secretary, Mrs. A. H. McCready told of meeting Mrs. Parsons, the National Corresponding Secretary, at her home in Toronto. The visit was one of pleasure and profit, as was a later visit to a meeting of the St. John Local Council. At the close of the meeting, afternoon tea was served.

Mr. Barrie Spicer '14, who recently gave a recital in Fawcett Hall, is returning to England to continue his studies.

Mr. R. V. Sharp, who was formerly on the staff of the Sackville Tribune, is now on the staff of the Sydney Record.

Shediac

Shediac, Dec. 13.—Very cold wintery weather has prevailed the past few days.

The Ladies of the Anglican Guild are holding today a sale of fancy work, and serving tea in Tipperary Hall.

During the week the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church held a pleasant and very successful fancy work sale and served chicken pie tea. A large patronage was extended, and in the vicinity of $110 was realized. Ladies in charge included Mrs. R. C. Tait, who presided over the pouring of tea and coffee; Mrs. A. J. Tait, Mrs. W. Avar and Miss Evans, in charge of the culinary department. Others assisting in various ways, and in charge of the tables were Mrs. W. R. Weddall and Miss Jessie Howie, Mrs. J. W. Livingstone, Miss M. Tait, Mrs. Alvin Muirhead, Miss M. Harper, Mrs. James Scott, Miss Foster, Miss B. Harper, Miss Little and Miss Weddall, Miss Mary Scott, Miss Anna Avar. The fancy work was looked after by Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. H. B. Steeves, Mr. Allan Tait collected the tickets.

Heavy colds are very prevalent and a number of our citizens are ill. Mrs. H. W. Murray and Miss Margaret Murray were recent visitors to Moncton.

Mrs. E. A. Smith has returned from Montreal, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Russell, who will spend the winter here. Mrs. Smith's brother, Mr. Jardine Russell, is in town to remain over Christmas-tide.

The Misses Tait, Miss Evans, Mrs. A. J. Tait and her sister, Miss Howie and number of others, were in Moncton this week.

Miss Little has taken a position as stenographer in the law office of F. J. Robitoux, Jr., Main St.

Miss May Harper has been in bed some days, owing to a severe cold.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist Church were pleasantly entertained during the week by Mrs. Weddall at the parsonage, on which occasion, Miss Jessie Howie for some years, engaged in missionary work in Japan but recently of Japanese Mission work in Vancouver was guest of honor. Miss Howie gave a most interesting talk on her work, which was appreciated by those present. Routine work in connection with the W. M. S. was taken up and before the ladies dispersed the hostess served a social cup of tea.

Mrs. Buck after a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Oulton, has returned to Dorchester.

Miss Gusie Hebert has closed her home, Shediac East End, and is boarding in town at the home of Mrs. A. J. Cormier. She is in her brother's store, Mr. John T. Hebert, Main St.

On Sunday morning last, Rev. Dr. W. R. Weddall occupied the pulpit of the West End Baptist Church, while Rev. Gideon Swin filled Dr. Weddall's appointment in the Methodist Church.
