

the QUARTERLY

Royal Canadian Mounted Police

Vol. 48, no. 1

WINTER 1983

---

- |                                                                                                     |                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2 Season's Greetings fromthe Commissioner                                                | 24 University Graduates                                                             |
| 3 To Our Readers                                                                             | 25 Maunsell's Storyby ex-Sub/Cst. E. H. Maunsell                         |
| 3 An OpinionA Brave New Worldby A.L.O. R.L. De Groot                          | 39 They Don't Make ThemLike They Used Tosubmitted by Sgt. W. Segstro |
| 5 Letters to the Editor                                                                      | 40 Depot Division Graduates                                                         |
| 12 Commr. GeorgeBrinton McClellan                                                        | 46 Divisional Dispatches                                                            |
| 14 Policing in a Free, Democratic, andLiberal Societyby Commr. R. H. Simmonds | 76 Promotions                                                                       |
| 19 Don't Spin Those Wheels!                                                                  | 78 Retirements                                                                      |
| 22 A Participating Spouseby Supt. J. A. Churchman (Rtd.)                          | 79 Obituaries                                                                       |