Horton Council.

Moved by Mr. Airth, seconded by hair. Carried. Complaints against the assessors were six namely, William Richards, Robert Leitch Mrs. Boulton, William N. Faichney, Wm.

Lewis and George Hay, overrated.

The cases being all called and both parties heard, the assessor's valuation was sus tained, except Mrs. Boulton's, on personal property, which was reduced one

Reeve and Council against the ass underrating the property of the following gentlemen: T. M. Brace, Gillespie Moffat & Co., Hon. Francis Hinks, John Martin, John L. McDougall, and John Warnock. In all these cases were added the following sums: To T. M. Brace's property, $118; to Gillespie Moffat & Co.'s, $120; to the Hon. Francis Hinks', $890; to John Martin's, on lot No. 5 in the 3rd con., $60, and $50 on lot No. 8 in the 4th con.; to John L. McDougall's, on real estate, $132; and to John Waraock's, real and personal; on real estate, $100, and $100 on personal Property. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Burton, seconded by Mr Airth, Resolved, That James Leitch's valuation be amended 300 dollars Carried. Moved by Mr. Burton, seconded by Mr. Eady, Resolved, That there be added to John Jamieson's property, the West half of lot No. 11, in the 7th con. the sum of $80 and there be added to Elliott Johnston property, the East half of lot No. 11, in the th concession, the sum of 80 dollars .-Carried.

Moved by Mr. Burton, seconded by Mr. Eady, Resolved, That the Court of Revision do now adjourn until further notice. Car-

E. FARRELL, Chairman.

Certified. JAMES JOHNSTON, Clerk.

The Corporate body take their seats to transact the public business of the township Present-the Reeve, Eady, Airth, Farrell

Former minutes were read and approv A petition from John Divine, one from

Mrs. Boulton, and one from John Shaw and John L. McDougall were read. Moved by Mr. Eady, seconded by Mr. Airth, Resolved, That the Revised Township Rolls be received and adopted. Car-

Moved by Mr. Eady, seconded by Mr. Airth, Resolved, That the Statute Labour be taken up and distributed. The Statute Labour was all distributed throughout the different localities. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Eady, seconded by Mr. Airth, Resolved, That all petitions do lie over until next session of Council. Carried. Moved by Mr. Eady, seconded by Mr. Airth, Resolved, That the Clerk be and he is hereby instructed to write the County Clerk for a copy of a line of road, surveyed cry of "Star Chamber" proceedings, which by Mr. John McNab, and constituted by may be popular, but may not be just. We the County Council about 22 years ago, can easily imagine how the Government of entering at a Post between lots 17 and 18

Carried. McNab, Resolved, That this Council do now adjourn to the first Monday in September next. Carried.

JAMES JOHNSTON.

of Jeff. Davis. Macon, Georgia,

9;30 a.m., May 13.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton :-Lieut, Col, Hardee, commanding the 18t e trail of Davis at Dublin, on the evening of the 7th, and followed him closely night and day through the pine wilderness of A-lligator creek and Green swamp, via Cumberlandsville to Irwins At Cumberlandsville Colonel Harwhile Pritcherd, having fresher pushed down the Ocmulgee towards Hopetions of his men and surrounded the camp ty than this cannot easily be imagined. before day. Hardee had camped at 9 p.m., within 2 miles, as he afterwards learned. The trail being too indistinct Michigan. A fight ensued, and, the two parwas discovered. The firing in this skirmish was the first warping that Davis reout, seeing his boots while he was running. was a very short one, and the rebel President was soon brought to bay. He brandished a bowie-knife and showed signs of battle. but yielded promptly to the persuasive pow. Some of them died under his care. He colthem to fire. He expressed great indig-nation at the energy with which he was pursued, saying he had believed our Gov. ernment too magnanimous to hunt down women and children. Mrs. Davis remarked to Col. Hardee, after the excitement was over, that the men had better not provoke the President or he might injure some of him till an opportunity offered to send it them. Regan behaves himself with dignity and resignation. The party evidently were North. making for the coast.

J. H. WILLSON.

prospects in most parts of this county (Oxford) of a bountiful wheat harvest this year, were never more cheering. In Dere-ham, the Norwiches, the Oxfords, and East ouri, with scarcely an exception, the apraging. It is believed that in the townnamed the quantity of winter wheat own is five times greater than that sown at any time since 1856. The farmers' proneets just now are certainly very encouraging, and it is hoped they may continue so.

In larmers properties of the prope

General Gilmore's order requiring the rayer for the President to be used in the priscopal churches of Savannah, was grad-Episcopal churches of Savannah, was graded by Rev. C. H. Coley, assistant minister of Christ Chusch, who closed the church ill he could hear from the Bishop of the poese. The pleasant alternative of read-the prayer or going to Fort Pulaski, seon brought the minister to a proper sense of his duties, and he applied for and obtain-ed permission to take the oath of alleigance, at the same time promising to read the Mrs. & urratt.

on met at the Town Hall, on Monday, the better than most of the men. She, it will be remembered, was he leading spirit next to Booth, and when the determination was arrived at to murde the late President Lincoln that particular night, ahe went around to inform the others, and passed down into Maryland o see that the stopping rold, in their flight. Her husband is dead. Her son, John Surratt, was to have murder ed the Secretary of War, but left before the hour, and went North, en routs for Canada, going via Springfield, Massachusetts. Her two daughters were not put in prison, and one of them Annie, is said to be very sick, one of them Annie, is said to be very sick, rumour says dying. Mrs. Surratt is about fifty or fifty-five years old, though she does not appear to be over forty-five. She is large in form, very stout, has a keen gray eye, a resolute look, rather ugly, has light hair, and any man would set her down for insolvents.

The following is the new list of Bank rupts in the Canada Gasette of 13th instant:—Henry Hall, Woodstock, C. W. W. M. Shaw, Georgetown, C. W.; John Parsons, Orangeville, C. W. Willoughby de Quincy Sewell, Bowmanville, C. W.; Wm. Clarke, Orangeville, C. W.; D. B. McEnery, St. Catharines, C. W.; Henri Longpre, Montreal; James Thompson, Uxbridge, C. W.; Alex. Bradburne, jr., Markham, C. W.; Louis Cote, Quebec; Ambroise Laberge, Montreal; Thomas Crow, Scarborough, C. W.; James Nee-lands, Durham, C. W.; Jacob Taylor, Welland, C. W.: Thomas Lamb, Napanee

Wednesday, May 24th, 1865.

.The circulation of the C. P. Herald 11 now very large and constantly increasing. Merchants, business men and all who desi to communicate with the public will secure a wide publication for their notices, by advertising in its columns. Charges as low as those of other papers of less than half the circulation. No charge for publishing births, marriages and deaths.

We devote considerable of our space t day to the publication of the evidence taken on the trial, now going on in Washington of the parties accused of conspiring to assas sinate Mr. Lincoln. In the first stages the trial the evidence was taken with clased doors, but the government has vielded to the popular clamour and allowed a limited number of reporters. We observe that the members of the press, both in Canada and the States, have echoed and re-echoed the cry of "Star Chamber" proceedings, which in the 5th con. of the Township of Horton. the United States may have believed it to Meved by Mr. Farrell, seconded by Mr. the publication of the evidence until all the parties connected with the conspiracy were arrested. It is not creditable to the press to pander to every popular erv. It was generally believed that the parties Further Details of the Capture said to be connected with this affair of the murder of the President were not guilty but one thing after another is coming out to show that the conspiracy existed, and was deeper and more wide spread than was at Wisconsin just arrived from Irwinsville. all supposed. The evidence, although by the United States Government, in which hitherto has not been sufficient to gratify ed men and horses of the 4th Michigan - a Dr. Blackburn seems to have been the their ambition. But if you examine the of the singing of the birds has come. Hardee followed the trail directly south, principal. It has been proven in evidence names of those mentioned in the advertise that he attended several cases of yellow fever ments you will find that they are third-rate ell, and thence at Irwinsvill, arriving in Bermuda, and packed up the infected fellows, who are not worth a snap, and that there at midnight of the 9th. Jeff. Davis clothing of his patients for shipment to the our common soldiers were worth a dozen of had not arrived. From a citizen, Pritch- Northern States, for the purpose of spread- them." erd learned that his party were encamped wo miles out of town. He made disposi ing the plague. A deeper depth of lepravi-

It is much to be regretted that this Dr. Blackturn has fled into neutral territory, to follow, he passed at 3 a.m., and had and will probably escape, for a while, the gone but little more than a mile when his advance was fired upon by men of the 4th whole world will try and condemn such inifteen minutes clapsed before the mistake wretch may find no shelter until he is given up to the authorities of his country. The seived. The captors report that he hastily evidence proves that during the recent yelout on one of his wife's dresses and low fever epidemic in Bermuda, this Dr. started for the woods, closely followed by Blackburn took passage for that island. He was a Southerner, formerly resident in they suspected his sex at once. The race Natchez, Mississippi. After his arrival he attended several yellow fever patients at the Hamilton Hotel, and at a Mrs. Slater's .lected their bed-clothing-including a large quantity of woolen clothing which, in one house of Everard C. Swan, to be kept by

Since the above was written we understand that Dr. Blackburn has been arrested in Montreal, on a charge of violating our It is with a great deal of pleasure that neutrality laws; and has been taken to re inform our readers at a distance that the Toronto for trial. He arrived in Toronto on Friday last.

> The latest reports from Toronto, say that he was brought up before the authoritie crown, and the prosecuting attorney asked for a remand for a week. This was vielded and the accused was admitted to bail in two sureties of $1,000 each, and himself in 2,000 dollars. The information which the warrant was obtained was pre ferred by a detective and was of heresay said 10,000 persons were present.

Our latest dates from Europe are by th

was resumed. Mr. Gregory thought, if it were passed, it would lead directly to uni- month, a boy about two and-a-half years old, the Government would not bind themselves to the six-pound franchise. Mr. Horsman said the bill was only an instalment, and drowned, by falling, into an exposed well.must lead ultimately to universal suffrage. D'Israeli warned the House against sanctioning anything resembling democracy, calling on them to reject the bill by a large majority. The House divided on previous question, ayes 214, nays 288; majority 74. the bill was therefore lost.

The Times says, "We hope Johnson will treat the enemy once at his mercy with greater leniency than he effects now that Lee has surrendered, Mobile has fallen, and Johnston has confessed himself exhausted. The North can afford to be magnanimous. the guard went to his tent, they were met We do not believe they will soil their victory with deeds of cruelty. Booth's end the Americans, that justice has been cheated of a vietim:

It is stated, upon seemingly good authority, that Sonora has been ceded to france generally very fertile, and contains rich leposts of silver and other metals. It has the finest harbour on the west coast of Mexico-that of Guaymas-and is well watered by several considerable rivers and a number of small lakes. Ex-Senator Gwin. has received a patent of nobility as Duke of Sonora, signed by the Emperor Louis Napoleon and bearing the seal of France.

glowing accounts of the prospects of the coming crops. It is said that in the western part of the province there never was better promise of a good harvest than there is this spring. The Kingston News says that from Sydenham, Storrington, Pittsburg, Loborough, Wolfe Island, and other places heard from comes the same welcome inte ligence. The fall crops are particularly promising. The hav crop also promises well. Generally speaking, the accounts from the back townships are cheering, and on the whole the County of Frontenac is in a fair way of producing a full average crop this year, if no unforseen mishap should unfortunately change the aspect of things. The St. Catherines' Post says there wa ever at this season of the year a better prospect of an abundant harvest. The fall wheat has a rich and healthy appearance and so has the pasture, although somewhat backward in growth, owing to the coldness

Gen. Rosecrans denies, very emphatically, that he has any intention of leading an army into Mexico, and repudiates the ide of any buccaneering expedition: He exressed himself very freely in a speech recently delivered in Boston, in which he said he "hoped to see public opinion directing the young men in the channels of peaceful industry, in which he proposed to set an exlengthy, will be read with a good deal of ample." He says :- "I have taken occasion to make these remarks because I saw, when in Washington, men willing to start some-A most infamous plot has been discovered thing or other; men, whose advancement

Ottawa, C.W., May 19.

About two o'clock to-day, three men. named respectively Lavigne, Ladoceur and Falls. They were trying to run a crib down avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing ties exhibiting the greatest determination, human acts; and we can only hope the the slide and got out of the channel. One the celebrations and festivities of our friends of them stuck to the crib and was carried on the frontier, we copy the following time down to the island opposite the city, where tables he was taken off insensible. The other two caught an oar and struck against a boom clung and was saved. The other was carried down the stream, and was picked up at G. T. Junction..... the island dangerously wounded.

We have long felt surprised that the Ottawa people did not make a push to ex- *Wolford. tend their railway to Arnprior; and we Irish Creek .. now understand that they are beginning to feel the loss of the trade of the Upper Ottawa, which, very naturally, passes down to Brockville, by our railway. They might have had foresight enough to see that this would be the result. They seem to have been all absorbed in the Seat of Government question, and, even on that point, they showed their shortsightedness. They will wake up, sometime, we doubt not; and enjoy the advantages which were long ago within their reach.

The American Government has announ in the Mexican struggle, warning all perwhich it deelsres it will put in force. This is right, and it will doubtless see to it, only that expeditions by land are not got up in the United States, but that privateers are not fitted out in its ports. What it

We are happy to observe that the Ottawa Citizen is now being issued daily instead of large additional expense to the publisher but we have no doubt the readers will ap. Smith's Falls ..

versal suffrage. Sir George Grey said that son of Mr. Henry McPherson, of the Township of Leeds, and grandson of Dr. Wm. Wilson, of Carleton Place, was accidentally It appears that his father was absent from home, and his mother having gone out to the barn left the little fellow playing with his elder brother: and the well being within 20 yards of the house, he, by some means had fallen into it. He was missed shortly afterwards, and search being made, was found by his brother, floating in the water, but life was extinct.

The reports of the arrest of Jeff. Davis appear to have been substantially correct and are fully confirmed. It is said that whe by Mrs. Davis en dishabille, with, "Please gentlemen, don't disturb the privacy of ladies before they have time to dress. "All right, madam," said the corporal, "we will wait till you have on your duds."-Presently there appeared at the tent door an ostensible old lady, with a bucket on her arm, escorted by Mrs. Davis and her sister "Please let my old mother go to the spring by the Emperor Maximilian. This is by for some water to wash in," said Mrs. Jeff., far the largest of the Mexican states, is in a pleading tope. "It strikes me your mother wears very big boots," said the guard, as he raised the lady's dress with his sabre and discovered a pair of number 13 calf-skins; "and whiskers, too", said he, as he pulled the hood from her face : and. le Jeff. Davis, in all his littleness, stood befor then ! A spencer was immediately pointed at his ear, and he was marched back to his tent and placed in durance vile. Only about $8,000 in specie was found with the From all parts of the country we have party. The several boxes were not yet

> The present 24th of May is the forty sixth birth-day of Queen Victoria, and will celebrated in almost every quarter of th globe. From almost every country wil scend one spontaneous, united, heartfelt wish-"God save the Queen."

The Queen, with that goodness of heart characteristic of Her Majesty, and a sympa thetic feeling intensified by her own be reavement, has addressed a letter of con dolence to Mrs. Lincoln. Doubtless it will find its way into print ere long.

Prince Arthur, the third son of Majesty the Queen, completed his fifteenth year last Monday, May 1st. He is now

THE NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF .-General Sir John Michael, the newly ap-With him comes Lieut.-Col. W. Earle, of the Grenadier Guards, as Military Secre-

The question of negro suffrage is just now a bone of contention in the U. S. Cabinet. Mr. Johnson seems disinclined to assume the responsibility of giving a vote to colored citizens until he learns the sentiments of offers a cheap ride to Brockville and Perth, on Wednesday, the 24th instant, All tickets sold on the 24th will be good for return either on the 24th or 25th of May.-For the information of those who intend to agton, is unquestionably one of the emarkable and important that the nce from the implication of President Davis nd the leading refugees in Canada in the accusation. Reporters having been admit-ted on Saturday last for the first time, we have now an opportunity of laying the prosaders. The trial is conducted in a strongbarred and guarded room of the peniten iary, before ten generals of the army.

MAIN LINE. TRAINS GOING NORTH. No. 1. No. 3. STATIONS *Fairfield.....

*Clark's.. * Jelly's. .....*
Bell's STATIONS. Almonte. PERTH BRANCH.

The charge against the accused is as fol

"For maliciously, unlawfully, and trait-orously, and in aid of the present armed rebellion against the United States of Amerca. on or before the 6th day of March, A. 1865, and on divers other days between that day and the 15th day of April, 1865, combining, confederating, and conspiring cogether with one John H. Surratt. John Wilkes Booth, Jefferson Davis, George N. Sanders, Beverley Tucker, Jacob Thompson, William C. Cleary, Clement C. Clay leorge Harper, George Young, and others inknown, to kill and marder within the military department of Washington, and within the fortified and intrenched lines thereof. Abraham Lincoln, at the time of he said combining, confederating, and conspiring President of the United States of merica, and Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy thereof; Andrew Johnson, then Vice-President of the United States aforesaid; William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States aforesaid, and Ulysses S. Grant, Lieutenant-General of the mies of the United States, and in comnand of the armies of the United States under the direction of the said Abraham incoln, and in pursuance of and in proseouting said malicious, unlawful and t ous conspiracy aforesaid, and in aid of said rebellion afterward, to wit on the 14th day of April, 1865, within the milit department of Washington aforesaid, and within the fortified and intrenched lines of said department, together with said John Wilkes Booth and John H. Surratt, malieously, unlawfully, and traitorously murdering the said Abraham Lincoln, the Presilent of the United States, and Commander. n-chief of the army and navy of the United

S. Graut, then being Lieutenant-General and in the command of the armies of the United States as aforesaid.' The specifications detail, 1st, the assassination of President Lincoln by J. Wilkes Booth, one of the conspirators, aided by J. H. Surratt; 2nd, the attempted assassing tion of Secretary Seward by Payne; 3rd, the lying in wait with intent to kill Vice-President Johnson by Atzeret; 4th the which will embrace Egypt and the Holy lying in wait of Michael O'Laughlin, with intent to kill General Grant; and 6th, the complicity with the whole of Samuel Arnold, Mary E. Surratt, and Dr. Mudd.

The following sketches are given by

and of huge proportions, neck bare and like a bullock, face smoothly shaven, a shock of and, when looked at, glares the looker out

Harrold has just escaped boyhood, and has a small face, with a feeble timid expression. He looks like a harmless though rather a indicating a mild disposition easily control-led by others. He looks like an average carpenter of forty, as he is, and he must have been, like Harrold, John Surratt, and Arnold, the mere tool of stronger and more not one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd and Mrs. Surratt, who has sufficient char-

A.M. P.M. the cowardly shot Atzerot's courage seemed 6.00 12.10 to have failed him, for he ran from his room 12.45 1.12
without assaulting Johnson, leaving his pistol under the pillow and a bowie knife under the mattress, his coat upon the wall, and fied on the horse. He was arrested ground that he had advised rebels to take, as a matter of form, the oath of allegiunce, that they might vote on the slavery question and defeat the votes of the Government,—from which it was alleged that he ignored the obligation of an oath. After some debate, this objection was withdrawn. The evidence previously taken in these trials is what the Government wishes to keep secret for the present.

A.M. P.M.

8.00 6.00

8.20 6.20

8.40 4.00

8.50 6.50

8.50 6.50

9.10 7.10

The first witness examine I publicly was earched next day, the dooring having the first witness examine I publicly was searched next day, the dooring having the first witness examine I publicly was both, and another to a house for Arnold.

J. P. Early said that he had come from Baltimore with O'Laughlin on the Thursday. O'Laughlin had gone to see Booth the next day at noon. They returned to Baltimore on the Saturday afternoon, and O'Laughlin's brother said there had been another to a house for Arnold.

J. P. Early said that he had come from Baltimore with O'Laughlin on the Thursday. O'Laughlin had gone to see Booth the next day at noon. They returned to Baltimore on the Saturday afternoon, and O'Laughlin's brother said there had been another to a house for Arnold.

J. P. Early said that he had come from Baltimore with O'Laughlin on the Thursday. O'Laughlin had gone to see Booth the next day at noon. They returned to Baltimore with O'Laughlin on the Thursday. O'Laughlin had gone to see Booth the next day at noon. They returned to Baltimore on the Saturday afternoon, and O'Laughlin's brother said there had been another to a house for Arnold.

J. P. Early said that he had come from Baltimore with O'Laughlin on the Thursday. O'Laughlin had gone to see Booth the next day at noon.

The trial of the conspirators to assassiate President Lincoln, Secretary Seward, ice-President Johnson, General Grant, and corretary Stanton, now going on at Washigton, is unquestionably one of the most markable and important under the mattresses he found a bowie-knife, like that which Booth had flourished in the theatre after shooting the President.
The next witness examined was Lewis A.

Weichman, a clerk in the government de-partment, who boarded with Mrs. Surratt, and who seems to have been regarded as a member of the family. He proved the extraordinary intimacy that subsisted between the accused Mrs. Surratt, her sons, J. Wilkes Booth, Dr. Mudd, Harrold, Atzerot, and Payne, several of whom had frequent meetings, conferences, and secret conversa-tions for nearly a month previous to the assassination. He often accompanied some of the conspirators to taverns and restur-ants, and drove Mrs. Surrat to Surratsville, and frequently saw them go apart for secret conference, but was never in a position to hear what they said. Payne, who called himself Wood, had a false black moustache; and he and young Surratt were at one time playing with bowie-knives in a room in the third story; they had also revolvers and four sets of new spurs in the room. Young to the stage door in the theatre, and also four sets of new spurs in the room. Surratt was a student of divinity, along with the witness, in a Roman Catholic college where he was highly esteemed by the superior. Witness drove Mrs. Surratt into the country on the afternoon of the 14th April, and did not return till about half past nine o'clook, about half an hour before the assassination. Immediately after some one rang the bell, which was answered by Mrs. Surratt; the person then came into Mary form Turner (coloured) said that the parlour and immediately went out again Atserot was given to drinking occasionally and Mrs. Surrat did not like him about the ouse. Young Surratt went to Richmond and on his return had 9 or 11 twenty-do lar gold pieces, and other money. He said he had seen Davies and Benjamin, who told him that Richmond would not be evacuated Surrett and witness went shortly before the sassination to the Herden House and hired a room for Payne, then called Wood (the assassin of Seward). A Miss Ward and Mrs. Murrey aided them in procuring a room for Payne, who was called a delicate gentleman. Witness had met Harrold at Surrat's once, and once at a Catholic church in the country. A Mrs. Slader, who passed confidentially between Canada and Rich-mond, stayed at Mrs. Surratt's on her tent to kill and murder the said William H. Seward, then Secretary of State of the United States as aforesaid, and lying in wait with intent maliciously, unlawfully, and traitorously to kill and murder the said Andrew Johnson, then being Vice-President of the United States. Surratt returned from Richmond about 3rd April with money, and said he was going to Montreal. Letters were received from him; one to his mother was dated Montreal, April 12th. Witness had been to Canada since Canada on the 18th, when he engaged rooms at the St. Lawrence Hall, which he left that night at 10 i, and was seen to leave the house of a Mr. Porterfield in company with three others in a waggon: He has not een heard of since. Surratt is about six only John Harrison, leaving out his surname.
He corresponded from Canada with a Miss Annie Ward, a teacher, who was most eximplary in her attendance at the Catholic church. Mudd, Booth, and Surratt had once a meeting in Booth's room, when they had deep, earnest, private conversation, and President's box. envelope, at which they looked intently, but ing Booth he came to Dr. Mudd's house which was carried on in a low tone. Mrs. Surratt frequently had private conversations

MONDAY CONTINUED. Robert R. Jones testified that he was clerk in the Kirkwood House. The name of A. G. Atzerot, who had taken room 126 ditizens, until he learns the sentiments of Congress.

He looks like a harmless though rather a mean fellow, easily led. He has a thin, in offeniive head, depressed in the region of the birds have neather the took the room. He did not know on the 14th April, was upon the hotel regisswear to the knife.

Mary Van Tine testified that she keep rooms for rent in Washington, and that two of the prisoners (Arnold and O'Laughlin) had taken rooms in her house about February 10. Booth had frequently come to see them, manifesting much anxiety when they were not in. They had left on Saturday, were not in. They had lett on Saturday, she understood, for Baltimore. She saw a pistol once in their room. A man having the appearage of a respectable mechanic

Henry Williams (colored) testified that he had carried a letter to O'Laughlin from Booth, and another to a house for Arnold.

We are sorry to hear that, one day last The Great Trial at Washington. a cost he found a bank book, with the in to be arrested in his own house; it would "Mr. J. Wilkes be the death of his mother. In Washington he had been in good spirits, and not at all nervous.

Lieut. Henderson testified that he had he had said on Friday that he was to see Samuel R. J. Strugg said he had seen O'Laughlan conversing with Booth in an ntimate manner about the beginning of April. There was another man with David Stanton testified that he had seen O'faughlin the night before the assasing tion at the house of the Secretary of War He asked where the Secretary was, and witness told him that he was standing upon the stoop. He offered no explanation, but remained a few moments until requested to o out. Gen. Grant was there that night It was about 10½ o'clock, and there was a band seranading him and the Secretary. D. C. Reed said that he knew John Sur ratt, and that he had seen him on the street on the 14th of April.

took care of Booth's horse. Booth came to the theatre between nine and ten o'clock on the night of the assassination, and Spangler called witness to hold his horse. After the murder, Booth came out, knocked him down and rode off. Witness went to the state

Mary Ann Turner (coloured) said that she lived in the rear of Ford's theatre, and and on the 14th eeen Booth at the back loor, between three and four, and again beween 7 and 8 o'clock, when he brought a horse, and called for Spangler, who came and was told to send Maddox, who took the

Mr. J. A. Anderson (coloured) gave much he same testimony, adding that some one had held the horse after Maddox, and that Spangler had denied that he was called.

W. A. Browning, private secretary to eard in his letter box, on which was written Don't wish to disturb you; are you ome ?-J. WILKES BOOTH.

Major Knox testified that he had been at the house of Sec. Stanton on the 13th. O'Laughlan came up and asked for the Secretary, saying that he knew him very Mr. D. Stanton spoke to him, and after while sent him away.

J. C. Hatter also saw O'Laughlin at Sec. tanton's, and was asked by him if Gen. Grant was in.

Sergeant Cobb, who was on duty at the navy-yard bridge on the night of the 14th, estified that three horsemen came up rapid y after 101 o'clock: The first gave his name as Booth, the second as Smith, but third was turned back. Polk Gardener said that he was comin to Washington, on the night of the 14th he met two horsemen riding rapidly. feet high, has a very large nose, his eyes are sunk, his hair black; he signed his letters only John Harrison, leaving out his surname.

Dr. Stene then identified the ball taken pistol. W. J. Kent identified a Derringer pin

black hair over a low forehead, and fierce eyes with small cornes, around which the white is always disagreeably visible. He leans his head straight back against the wall, would not let him have it. going to search the house, he showed them a boot with J. Wilkes written inside.

PREVIOUS EVIDENCE, The authorities have permitted the publication of such portion of the evidence taken with closed doors as they think will 'not

Spangler has a long face and thin head, slept in his room; or whether he had expressed a choice of rooms. He saw the articles taken from the coat pockets in the room. The pistol was loaded; would resonate one of the books, but would not summer of 1863, twenty miles from Faunton. He became acquainted with Wilkes Arnold, the mere tool of stronger and more vicious persons.

The first feeling which the visitor experiences on entering the room is one of amazement at the conspicuous meanness, and vulgarity of the prisoners. There is not one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd

Swear to the knife.

Mr. Floyd testified that he resided at Surrattsville, and had been acquainted with John H. Surratt since December. He knew of the progress of the Confederacy; and vulgarity of the prisoners. There is not one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd

The first feeling which the visitor excepting the room is one of the Surrattsville, and had been acquainted with He was asked by them what he thought of the progress of the Confederacy; and he told them that, after Gettyston one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd

The first feeling which the visitor exception which the visitor exception is one of the surrattsville, and had been acquainted with He was asked by them what he thought of the progress of the Confederacy; and he told them that, after Gettyston one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd not one of them, perhaps, excepting Mudd and Mrs. Surratt, who has sufficient character to enter into any such a conspiracy as this from any motive less base than money.

Mrs. Surratt is permitted to sit down money.

In the titale is fell down for the miss down that the sassassination.

Mrs. The d him into the front room where saw two nonsense, and added, "If we only act our that the assassination of the President was an object finally to be accomplished. He had heard it freely spoken of in the streets of Richmond. Its necessity was generally assented to in the service met Booth and a man named Johnson, and to having overheard their conversation. She picked up two letters which they had dropped. One was addressed, "Dear Louis;" saying that the lot had fallen on him to be the Charlotte Corday of the nineteenth century; "Abe Lincoln must die now; you can choose your own weapons,—the cup, the knife, the bullet," &c. The letter is signed "Chan Sally." "Chas. Seiby."

"Dear Louis: The time has at last come that we have all wished for, and upon you everything depends. As it was decided before you left, we were to cast lots. Ac before you left, we were to east lots. Accordingly we did so, and you are to be the Charlotte Corday of the nineteenth century. When you remember the fearful, solemn vow, that was taken by us, you will feel that there is no drawback. Abe must die, the knife, the bullet. The oup