BOOKS

Recommended for Reading During Lent

Helps to a Better Christian Life.

New Readings for Every Day in Lent. Compiled by Rev. Geo. W. Shinn, D.D., 12mo, cloth, $1 net.

The contents of this volume are selections from sermons by the most noted preachers of our Church and the Church of England. It is a good and useful book, full of spiritual help and refreshment.

The Path of Life.

By Rev. George Hodges, D.D. A new volume of Sermons uniform with "Christianity Between Sundays." 16mo, cloth, $1. This is the fifth of the series of Dean Hodges' uncommonly popular sermons.

He is an accurate exegete, an independent thinker, and particularly forceful and practical in his application of the truth. He is among the few sermonizers whose discourses are healthful and profitable reading. We commend this volume, as we have the other three, to the favorable attention of our preachers.—The Church Standard.

Chief Things.

Second Series. By Rev. A. W. Snyder, 12mo, cloth, $1.

This second series of "Chief Things" like the first, is a capital series of short, pithy papers on the greatest of all subjects, addressed to busy people who have no time or patience to spare for abstruse theology.

Blessed Are Ye: Talks on the Beatitudes.

By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A., author of "The Shepherd Psalm," etc. 12 mo, cloth, 75c. "It seems to us that in this little book Mr. Meyer is at his best. There is about it a beauty of style, a breadth of charity, and a tenderness of heart that ought to make it one of the religious classics of the future."—Christian Work.

The Key of Life.

Addresses on the Seven Words from the Cross. By Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut. 12 mo, cloth, 60c. net.

Quadragesima; or, Thoughts for the Forty Days.

By Reginald Heber Howe, D.D., Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Longwood, Mass. 12mo, paper, 50 cents; cloth $1 net.

"We commend it heartily and without reserve for its simplicity and directness and its practical bearing upon the common things of ordinary life. The short prayers at the end of each day's reading are wonderfully beautiful and appropriate."—The Church Standard.

Behold the Man!

By Franz Delitzsch. Translated by Elizabeth C. Vincent. Dr. Delitzsch says the translation is "skilful, elegant and sympathetic." 25c.

In Paradise; or, The State of the Faithful Dead.

A Study from Scripture on Death and after-Death. By Rev. Charles H. Strong, A. M. Third edition. 12mo, cloth, $1.
