

is hereby authorized by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, to appoint three Commissioners not being stockholders, whose duty it shall be to examine and count the money actually in the vaults, and to ascertain by the oaths of the majority of the Directors, that half the amount of its capital hath been paid in by the stockholders towards payment of their respective shares, and not for any other purpose, and that it is intended to have it there remain as part of the capital stock of the said Bank, which investigation is hereby declared indispensable, and shall be made at the periods prescribed by the second Section of this Act, when paying in the capital stock of the said Bank.

17. The shares or capital stock shall be assignable and transferable according to the rules and regulations that may be established in that behalf; but no assignment or transfer shall be valid or efficient unless such assignment or transfer shall be entered and registered in a book to be kept by the Directors for that purpose, nor until such person or persons so making the same, shall previously discharge all debts actually due and payable to the said Corporation; in no case shall any fractional part of a share, or other than a complete share or shares, be assignable or transferable; and whenever any stockholder shall transfer in manner aforesaid all his stock or shares in the said Bank to any other person or persons whatever, such stockholder shall cease to be a member of the said Corporation.

18. The said Company shall not directly or indirectly deal in any thing excepting bills of exchange, gold or silver bullion, or in the sale of goods really and truly pledged for money lent and not redeemed in due time, or in the sale of stock pledged for money lent and not so redeemed; which said goods and stock so pledged shall be sold by the said Corporation at public sale at any time not less than thirty days after the period for redemption; and if upon such sale of goods or stock there shall be a surplus, after deducting the money lent, together with the expenses of sale, such surplus shall be paid to the proprietors thereof respectively.

19. The holders of the stock of the said Bank shall be chargeable in their private and individual capacity, and shall be holden for the payment and redemption of all bills which may have been issued by the said Corporation, and also for
