All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

LOCAL ITEMS

Miss L. Earl of Elgin is visiting Mrs. S. C. A. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dowley are at Charleston Lake this week.

Mrs. James Walker of South Lake visited friends in Athens last week.

The Misses Green of Lyndhurst were last week guests of Mrs. C. I. Lamb.

Master Harold Cook of Brockville is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Fair.

Miss Myrtle Wiltse of Gananoque was on Sunday a guest of the Misses Wiltse, Church street.

Mrs. John Gilroy of Brockville is visiting friends in Athens, a guest of her mother and the Misses Bullis.

The midsummer sale of fine furniture at T. G. Stevens should prove of interest to careful buyers. See adv't.

Wanted—at once—clerk for general store. Apply in own handwriting, stating experience, if any, to P.O. Box 3, Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy of Oak Leaf have returned to Athens and are occupying Mr. W. Brown's house on Pearl street.

Mrs. C. Derbyshire was called to Jones' Falls last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Hollis Dancy.

Togo, the great admiral of Japan, is said to be an earnest Christian, as is his wife, who is a graduate of Vassar College.

Mrs. Yates of Syracuse has decided to again make her home in Athens, and will take possession of her brick residence on Victoria street this fall.

About 8,000 boxes of cheese were offered in Brockville last week, about half of which were sold. The board price was 8 1/2c and the ruling price on the curb, 8c.

Mr. Marcus Stevens, for the last three years employed as salesman in the store of Mr. G. W. Beach, left Athens on Monday for Brockville where he takes a similar position in the store of Robert Wright & Co.

Mr. G. W. Boyce is this week removing to North Williamsburg where he has purchased a furniture and undertaking business. His many Athenian friends wish him a full measure of success.

There was a fair attendance of buyers at Mr. Dockrell's sale on Monday, but prices ruled low, and after a half dozen or so of his cows had been sold Mr. Dockrell withdrew the remainder. The small profit now being derived from butter and cheese has naturally a depressing effect on the value of dairy stock.

A few years ago, it will be remembered, the late J. B. Saunders obtained by correspondence all the details of an elaborate scheme to dupe some confidential person. The writer, a Spaniard, claimed that he had seen service in the Spanish-American war, but for some slight offence had been carried to Spain and imprisoned. Before his arrest in Cuba, he claimed to have buried an immense sum of money, and it was to obtain a protector for his daughter and her enjoyment of this great wealth that he wrote to the late Mr. Saunders. The whole scheme was pretty well exposed at the time, and it seemed strange that any person could be caught in such a net. But evidence that the business has proved profitable is found in the fact that during the last year two citizens have received similar communications. In both cases wealthy men are imprisoned in Spain and seek aid to recover the cash they have buried. Edward Zannora offers a reward of a fraction over $270,000 and the other worthy holds out an equally tempting bait.

Miss Mollie Stinson is visiting friends in Westport.

There are 143 religious denominations in the United States.

Miss Mabel Greer of Lynn is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ira Kelly.

Miss Edna McBratney of New Dublin is visiting the Misses Fair.

Miss Lucy Kelly is now recovering after nearly a month's serious illness.

Master Teddy Taylor of Boston is visiting his grandfather, Mr. Alex Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kerr of Greenbush spent Tuesday with Mrs. Joseph Kerr.

Mr. W. F. Frew, employed with Mr. W. F. Earl, left for his home in Laundown this week.

Miss Elsie Stewart of Seeley's Corners is visiting her cousin, Miss Carrie Redmond, Wiltse street.

Miss Minnabel Morris has returned home after spending a month at Queen's College, Kingston.

Mr. Williams Johnston, I.P.S., and family are this week occupying a cottage at Charleston Lake.

Last Wednesday Rev. L. M. Weeks and family returned from Westport, where they had spent a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Athens spent Saturday and Sunday in Brockville, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tackaberry.

Mrs. Almeron Wilson and family are occupying their cottage at Delta Lake and have as guest this week Mrs. A. M. Eaton.

The Rev. L. M. Weeks has the following appointments for next Sunday: Plum Hollow, 10.30; Toledo, 2.30; Athens, 7.30.

Twenty five people were killed and one thousand, three hundred and eighty-four injured in celebrating the 4th of July in the United States.

Mrs. Sam Richardson of Lawrence, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harvey D. Wing of Hard Island. She is accompanied by her grandchild.

Mrs. S. Boyce, who has been assisting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Boyce in their removal preparations, accompanied them to Brockville on Tuesday.

Mrs. Conlin, Miss Conlin, Mr. S. T. Conlin and Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Smith's Falls were on Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Conlin, Elgin street.

Mrs. Omer Lyon of Richmond, Ont., and Mr. E. E. Jacob of Norwalk, Ohio, have been here for several days, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jacob. Part of last week they spent very pleasantly at Ingle Wava, Mr. Jacob's summer home at Charleston Lake.

The Rev. Heber Kilborn, who is home on a holiday, preached a splendid sermon in the Baptist church last Sunday evening to a large audience, and Mr. B. C. McConnell sang "A Dream of Paradise" with fine effect, also taking part in a quartette rendered appropriately, "There will be no dark valley when Jesus comes."

Mr. E. M. Boeckh of Toronto testified to the enjoyment he derived from a three weeks' sojourn at Charleston Lake this season by purchasing from Mr. B. Loverin a building site on Hogs-back Island. He will return this fall and superintend the erection of a boat-house, ice-house, etc., and will probably add a put-put to Charleston's fleet of motor craft.

Society church parades are coming under the ban of the clergy in some places. In Ottawa recently the Odd-fellows were commended for having their annual service in their hall instead of marching to church in dress parade. Now Toronto clergymen are after the military nob of weeks ago. About the only redeeming feature of these occasions is that there are some men who go to church at such a time who are never found inside a church at any other time.—Ex.

Mr. Geo. A. Merrick of Toronto has been visiting his mother and friends in Athens this week. In company with a party of friends, he sailed to Brockville from Toronto in a 34-ft yacht. When opposite Prince Edward County, about midnight, their yacht bumped over some rocks but suffered no damage, though the party were considerably alarmed. The latest sailing chart the party could obtain was made in '64, and a confusion of the lighthouses caused their mishap. On his yachting cap, George now wears the crest of the R.C.Y.C. of the Queen City, and has taken part in some of the chief sailing events of that famous club. Of course, this is a great change from navigating the "big waters" of Charleston Lake, but we question if the wild waves of Ontario give adventurous yachtsmen a greater thrill than was enjoyed (1) a few years ago by Athenian youths who, occasionally went for a pleasure trip in Merrick & Moore's white winged racer. That was a great craft, sure enough, and the combination of sail-making and Reporter-office-deviling that accompanied its evulsion must sometimes form a pleasant subject for reverie to its chief creator. Mr. Merrick now holds a good position in the works of the Toronto Lithographing Company.
