This Means Anaemia, and if Negected Consumption May Follow—Dr. Wil-liams' Pink Pills the Only Certain Cure.

Anaemia, or poor or watery tood, is a trouble from which most gowing girls, and many young boyskuffer. It comes at a critical perid of the young person's life, and uless prompt steps are taken to enrich the blood and thus strengthen the system, decline, and most likely consumption will follow. Dr. Willims, Pink Pills is the only medicine that acts directly upon the blood an the nerves, promptly restoring the sling one to complete health and strength. The following statement, from Mrs. Two of West Lorne's most popular young people were wed on Wednesday evening, Dec. 31st. The home of Peter McMillan was the scene of the pretty event, when his eldest daughter, Miss Margaret, was united in marriage to Doneld D. McCall. one to complete heath and statement. From Mrs.
Lena M. Ryan, of Welland, rhose daughter was a victim of anemia, gives the strongest proof of the value of these pills. Mrs. Ryansays: gives the strongest proof of the value of these pills. Mrs. Ryansays:

"About three years ago the lealth of my daughter, Birdie, becaus so had that I was seriously alrmed. She was pale and almost blodless; had no appetite, lost flesh and suffered from serere headaches. I took her to a doctor, and althouth his treatment was followed for some time, it did not benefit her. I tried some other remedies, but these also failed, and she had wasted away to a mere shadow of her former self. At this stage I was advised away to a mere shadow of her former self. At this stage I was advised is give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and she began this treatment. Almost from the outset these pills helped ler, and as she continued their use, the color came back to her cheeks, her appetite improved, the headaches ceased to trouble her, and by the time she had taken eight boxes she feltstronger and better than she hid ever done in her life before. Take one point, verse 2, unity. Two women, co-workers in the gospel with Paul, are at variance, though both their names are in tha book of life. Paul contended with Barnabas when he wanted his nephew's, Mark, company; and he withstood Peter to the face, who was dissembling about religious ordinances, at Antioch. It is God's will that His children "be of the same mind in the Lord, which they cannot be in the flesh. When gospel ordinances and ritual are so indefinitely described, (while under the Levitical law they were so definite), good people, whose names may be in the book of life, never quite agree in the outward, but have to arrange ritual and ordinance with spiritual expediency, from inference, because they cannot find as explicit directions in the New Testament as they can indevended. cannot find as explicit directions in the New Testament as they can in the Old. Yet we can by the indwell-ing spirit, "each esteem other better than themselves, and very highly for their work's sake." "Honor all men; Love the Brotherhood; Fear God; Honor the King."
