GENERAL IRISH NEWS. DUBLIN

Saturday evening between Saturchy aroning between 10 11 o'clock, a serious riot took o ou the North Wall, between a of 02 union coal laborers oned on Mr. Murphy's boat, the tge, and a body of 50 or 60 of im-George, and a body of 50 or 60 of im-ported free laborers—It is not exactly George, and a body of our proved free laborers. It is not exactly known how the collison came about, but it appears that the non auton men wore returning to their various ships when they came upon Mr. Murphy's employes opposite the Great Southern and Western Railway Company's terminus. An alterection took place, which at once developed into a fierce flight, which lasted about ten minutes, some of the weapons used tomig shovels, spades and bars of iron, Several of the free laborers were bady injured, and three of them had to be taken to Jevila street Hospital. As by injured, and three of client heat is to taken to Jevils afrect Hospital. At the time of the outbreak 12 police uppear to Live been actually on the spot, but bodies of constables were hastly brought up from Summer hill, and Store street stations, and these ar rested the 24 union laborers as they were leaving the secue of the rick, and clurged them at Summer Hill Police Station with unlawfully and -ictously assembling to intimidate. All the 24 arrested laborers were incarcerated for the night, but on Sunday, fifteen were admitted to bail, while ninem who have been identified as committing acts of personal violence on the seven injured men were retnined in custody. The injured men who were the soven injured men were returned in custody. The injured men who were taken to Jervis street Hospital, were Coyle, Suffering from a wound in the head; Hy, Smith, with injuries to the head and nose, and Ward, who suctained injuries to the spine and contained of the ribs None of them would, however, remain in populations treatment.

would, however, remain in hespital after treatment.

A largely-attened meeting of the Quay workers was held yesterday, when a resolution was passed protesting against the introduction of free labor by the masters, and pledging the men not to return to work under the present conditions.

The condition of affairs on the quays continues to point to an early cessation of the strike. Indeed, meat of the large firms are now believed to have their full complement of men and not to be in any way inconvenienced by the strike. It is also understood that coal laborers are returning to work at the fail of the masters without the or hindrance from those still remaining out.

at the fail of the hardenes at the fail of the hardenee from those still remaining out.

At a late hour it was learned that the negotiations, which were referred to as being in progress have failed.

Affairs on the quays seem to have taken a hopeful turn. A number of men returned to work for Messrs. Tedeastle, McCormick, and Co., and Messrs. Flower and McDonald. It is probable that a considerable body will begin work soon, and it is not improbable that a general settlement of the strike is at hund.

A public meeting to protest against the action of the Commissioners of Education in excluding Irish from the list of ordinary subjects in National Schools in face of the united demands of all classes of the Irish people was held in Dublin during the week.
