Having food and raiment, let us be therewith content: 1 Timothy vi. 8.

week to meet actual cost of printing. The illustrations are furnished independent of the fund. Our printer has produced the work at a mere paying price, and has ever been ready to give us an extra hundred when from time to time we needed it.

OUR LECTURES.

UR space last week dia not admit of several items which had been prepared. We specially desired to mention the lecture delivered by Rev. G. M. Mil-

c) ligan, on the evening of Tuesday, 25th ult. Notwithstanding other attractions calculated to draw off the class usually meeting with us, our Room was completely filled by an attentive and appreciative audience. Mr. Milligan was listened to with interest, and at the close received a hearty vote of thanks, moved by Alderman Harvie, seconded by Rev. J Wilkinson, and supported by Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education.

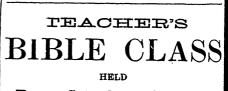

On Friday, 21st ult, Mr. D. C. Forbes gave a lecture to "Our Boys," taking for his subject, "Some experiences in camp life" Mr. Forbes held the attention of the Boys for over an hour, and when at the close he announced that on some future occasion he would give "further reminiscences," the announcement was received with applause.

BOOKS, AND HOW TO USE THEM.

UCH was the title of the lecture delivered last Tuesday evening by Rev. Hugh Johnston, B.D. Our large Hall was well filled with our friends, who were am-

S ply repaid by the treat furnished them. Mr. Johnston's lecture was illustrated by choice readings rendered by a number of kind friends.

Every Saturday Afternoon,

AT 4.30 O'CLOCK,

Conducted by Hon. S. H. BLAKE, Q.C.

"THEM."

CANDIDATE for holy orders at one of our theological colleges, was addicted to the weakness of wearing a rather elaborate gold chain, with appendages, which drooped, more or less gracefully, over the front of his vest. It happened that on a certain Sunday, being engaged in catechising a Sunday-school class, he had occasion, in due course, to enquire of the children what they understood by the expression, "the pomp and glory of the world." For some time, the whole class seemed to be unequal to the emergency, preserving perfect silence. At last one little mite of a boy held up a hand, and stepped forward out of the ranks. Then walking directly up to his teacher, he deliberately laid his hand on the gold chain with its brilliant belongings, and exclaimed with great emphasis: "Them !"—

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, hear me: for I am poor and needy. Psalm lxxxvi, 1.