

SALISBURY SUMMONED.

AT LEAST IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT HE WILL BE TO-DAY.

Acceptance by the Queen of the Resignation of the Gladstone Ministry. The Premier's Recommendation of Literature to Students of Irish History.

London, July 21.—Mr. Gladstone at two o'clock this afternoon received from the Queen her Majesty's command to resign the office of Premier and his ministers. As soon as his messenger returned Mr. Gladstone notified his colleagues. He will not proceed to London to personally surrender the seals of office until Her Majesty shall have appointed his successors.

It is officially announced that the Queen has summoned the Marquis of Salisbury to form a Ministry. Lord Salisbury is due here in London on Thursday morning.

The Government of Ireland. London, July 21.—The Times says it is an indisputable necessity of the hour that the most capable statesman in the Irish party be chosen to administer Irish affairs. Another important change, the Times says, is that the Government should be formed by a man of administrative ability, but it is idle to disguise the fact that he has gravely compromised his position as a permanent member of the cabinet.

It is believed to be in some sense the author of the "Irish Question" in the "Times."

Blowed with his own clerk. The Postmaster-General deposes a Wife and a Family.

The village of Havelock, on the Canadian Pacific Railway, county of Peterborough, and the surrounding country are agitated over a scandal. According to the Belleville Intelligencer, a Frenchman named Prevaux, who is the proprietor of the hotel in the village, has been charged with the commission of a crime.

London, July 21.—The Western Methodist conference today welcomed Bishop Doane and Dr. Huns, who represent the Methodist Episcopal Church of America. After a fraternal address Bishop Doane in a stirring allocution traced the growth of the English speaking churches and the progress of the Christian religion in the present century. He dwelt eloquently on the work of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of men, and on the religious thought in America. An address from the Methodist church of Canada was subsequently read.

London, July 21.—Mr. Gladstone, replying to-day to inquiries as to which were the best books to read on the history of the Irish question, has said that there was a great deal of good to be read on the subject. He recommended Goldwin Smith's article on Pitt in his "English Statesmen," also Lecky's "History of the People of England in the Eighteenth Century," and "History of England in the Nineteenth Century," by Macaulay.

London, July 21.—A remarkable heat wave is passing over England, accompanied by disastrous thunder storms. At Liverpool the river overflowed and two persons were drowned. Severe storms with loss of life are reported in France, and in the West Indies. In the West Indies, a hurricane, causing damage to the extent of 15,000,000 francs. In Paris the heat is excessive. Extraordinary sanitary precautions are being taken by the authorities.

London, July 21.—The body of a man named Robert Kitter, a barber by trade, but of late very much distinguished, was found in the mill race near Neel's cooper shop about noon to-day. He was seen on the streets at 10 o'clock this morning. It is probable he fell into the race while under the influence of liquor. The coroner was notified, but as there was no evidence of foul play an inquest was not deemed necessary.

London, July 21.—A draft recently given in a Canadian post by the captain of the schooner J. J. Kennedy was presented yesterday to E. J. William & Co. The firm declined to cash it, as it was not a Canadian draft, and the Canadian authorities had no right to demand it.

London, July 21.—David Apple, aged 21, of Berlin, while bathing in the Grand Canal, was struck by a boat, being unable to swim, and was drowned.

London, July 21.—A fire broke out in the wire works of Messrs. W. & A. Mason, an operator goes to the instrument and tries to extinguish it. The fire is extinguished, but the wire is ruined. The loss is estimated at £10,000.

London, July 21.—A successful trial was made at Fort Hamilton yesterday. A man was aboard the boat lowered in twelve feet of water, and remained on the bottom half an hour, when she was raised without difficulty. Lieutenant Zilinski said the trial demonstrated that the boat could be directed, raised and lowered to the surface at the will of the captain.

London, July 21.—Last night the only son of Mr. W. G. Uglow, of North Dorset, in the chase became very warm. With the view of cooling himself he stripped and waded into the River Thames at a point where the water is cold and deep. It is supposed he took a cold, and he immediately sank and died.

London, July 21.—Two boys doctored Willie Langley, aged 8, with whisky to such an extent that he became insensible and was taken to a hospital. He was brought round by three doctors, and is now out of danger.

London, July 21.—Four notes of the Bridgewater Iron Company went to protest today. The assets of the company are said to be $200,000. The liabilities approximate $400,000.

STREET RAILWAY EARNING.

A Statement Prepared by Mayor Howland. Mayor Howland believes that the Toronto Street Railway Company is assessed at a great deal too low a figure.

Mayor Howland believes that the Toronto Street Railway Company is assessed at a great deal too low a figure. He says that the company's last dividend was only six per cent on a capital of $200,000, while the company's income is more like $100,000, and it proposes to have a dividend of that amount. A statement prepared at his instance is as follows:

The following table shows the average number of cars running daily on each route in the city up to the month of May last year. The total number of passengers carried by each car, the total daily revenue received by the street railway company therefrom, and the average number of cars of four routes for each passenger carried:

Table with 4 columns: Route, Average number of cars running daily, Total number of passengers carried by each car, Total daily revenue received by the street railway company therefrom.

This is equivalent to a revenue of $401,721.20 per annum.

CARDINAL TASCHEREAU.

AN INCIDENT OF HIS LIFE. Bets as to Whether a Wall Would Fall or a Laborer be Killed.

Everyone who was ever in Orléans is acquainted with the "Jako" Rose's old carriage office at No. 85. The little building was by demolished to make room for the site of the new workhouses that are to be erected there. At 6 o'clock last evening Cardinal Taschereau, in an advanced stage of intoxication, began to pull the little place down. A crowd of forty people watched his operations from the opposite side of the street.
