Bowling

Frank Tame's fierce form biggest departure in Westwood mixed loop

The ladies division produced the usual one-girl show with consistent Kay Neal in starring role making a clear sweep, but a fierce form by Frank Tame caused plenty of excitement and a definite departure from the ho-hum state in the men's category of the Westwood mixed bowling league.

Tame, not a familiar figure in the spotlight of winners, took three of the four titles with 305 and 315 pins in the flat and handicap singles series, then con-tinued to add high handicap triples with 693.

John Dowling, who holds high average with 247, rolled 735 to capture triple flat. Standings: Boozers, 40;

Destroyers, 28; Bumbling Bees, Wig a boo witzits, 25 Faulty Connection, Top Cats, 22; Don's Dames, 21; Meteors, 15; Misfits, 5; Go

Late Starters

Shirley Martin and Ray McGoogan shared the Late Starters bowling leaguer winning categories each.

Rolling 252, 245 and 237, Shirley accumulated a pinfall of 734 for high triple flat to become runaway winner, ahead of Gretta Brickerstaff (690) and Doreen Gregoris (625). She added handicap honors with 734, followed by Lori Majewski (704) and Gretta retta Brickerstaff (702). Ray McGoogan chalked up

286 to beat out Neva Nixon (285) and Elain Tobin (254) for singles flat, then scored another close win with a 286pin handicap singles. June Hicks came second with 285, seven points ahead of Elain

High average is held by Cathie Tapp with 210, an advantage of six points over runner-up June Haslam (204) and the third-place duo McGoogan and Martin (203 each).

Standings: Ding Bats, 106; Teddy Bears, 95; Trip Lightlies, 92; Thunderballs, Super Doopers, 83; Chargers, 80: It's, 77: Pin Pushers, 76; Pink Panthers, 69: Gagma, 58: Eager Beavers, 57; Born Losers, 46.

Streetsville

Norm Flemington rolled two over 300 games — 327 and 313 - to take high single in the League last week. He also made high triple at 835, being paced in singles by Jim Lee and Earl Hurlburt who both had 317s and in triples by Jim Lee and Gil Lutes at 785 and 776 respectively Standings: Hutt Fence, 132; S.B.S., 103; All Stars, 90; Muskrats, 90; Turks, 77; Town Liners, 72; Farmers, Misfits, 43

THURSDAY MIXED The Augustines were at it again when the Villa Thursday Night Mixed Leagued played last week. Mary Augustine Sr. took it all for the girls with singles of 283 and 321 and triples of 681 and 795. For the men her husband Dave had both flat wins at 299 and 723 while Ted Prosser recorded single with handicap at 304 and Bill Driedzic the with-handicap triple at 776. Standings: Sports, 961/2; John's Junkies, 87; Raiders, 86; Team Canada, 78½; Rolling Stones, 69½; Dilly Dallies, Rolling

SENIORS LEAGUE In the Senior Citizens' league Johanna Christl won the bundle for the women holding top average at 154 and recording singles of 215 and 274 and triples at 586 and For the men Emil Christl has best average at 167 and took both flat honors at 188 and 501, Wilmer Mason being tops in with-handicaps with 260 and 713.

Standings: Alley Cats, 89;

Pin Heads, 67; Die Hards, 63; Mis Fits, 55.
MEADOWVALE

John Hayward led the men with singles of 288 and 318 to go high in the Meadowvale Mixed Bowling League Feb. 27. In triple for the men Dave Augustine had a 693 flat while Don Gardiner was aided by his handicap to amass 774.

flat at 574 and Pam Landi the high three with handicap at 715. Best averages here are held by Dave Augustine at

230 and Ivy Albert, 197. Standings: Alley Cats, 49; 747s, 46; Bed Bugs, 33; Rovers, 31; Happys, 28; Beetles, 26; Slow Pokes, 23; Snappers, 18. WEDNESDAY WOMEN

Doris Smith had the best single game in the Wednesday Afternoon Women's League, rolling up a score of 268; while Iris Young was tops in three games at 712. Best averages here belong to Irene Forster, a perennial 219 and Roberta Lindsay,

Standings: Dura Belles, 89; Mavericks, 83; Pink Panthers, 80; Forster's Follies, 74; L.Ws, 72; 71; S.Ds, 69; Strikettes, 50. YOUTH LEAGUE

In the two-game bantam division of the Villa's Youth Bowling Council leagues, Lynn Kingsley and Merry Gilbert were best for the girls. Lynn recorded both best single and two game flat scores at 194 and 314 while Merry took the withhandicaps at 257 and 443.

For the boys David Moran was best in "flats" at 126 and 247 while Alan Burton had single with handicap at 210 and Grant Laidlaw the two game with handicap at 391. Bantam Y.B.C. standings: Ding-Bats, 74; Sylvesters, 65; Bunnies, 64; Winners, 63;

Champs, 62; Teddy Bears, 43; Trippers, 41; Bim

In the Y.B.C. three-game division. bantam-junior-senior league, Tim Burrows remained best in single boys. With an average of 220 he rolled a 218 single flat which bested both flat and with handicap categories as well as a 598 triple that did For the girls Doris likewise. For the girls Susan Rutherford and Peg Mead Liles took both flat scores at tied for single flat at 226 240 and 589 as well as holding Shirley White taking triple best average at 177 and > handicaps at 265 and 651. Junior section saw Joseph Russolo win all the way at 217, 252, 438 and 649 although Jim Dean's average is best at 165. For the girls, Kerry Gilbert had triple flat at 582 while Linda Mill took all the rest with 223, 265, and 675, Julie Morgan holding best average at 174 Bantam *section dominated by Ralph Blavel with scores of 230, 280, 556 and 700.

Debbie Long had the with-

Airport

High-flying Eileen Dix zeroed on three classifications to emerge as the heroine of the Malton Airport ladies bowling league rivalry this week.
She took both ends of the singles (flat 290, handicap 314) then added handicap triples honors with 697 points. Jennie Bowden's 650 pitfall for triple flat high score prevented a clean sweep. Sharon Kirby had second best singles with 253 and 295, while Jennie Bowden (handicap 668) and Muriel Rennett (flat 635) shared runner-up honors in the triples category.

High average is still held by Muriel Bennett with 202, five points ahead of Vi McManus. Standings: Tigers Cougars. Leopards, 7; Cougars, Kangaroos, 5; Foxes, Lions,

All eyes on the ball ... Gordon Graydon star Lou Ann Mailling wins possession of the ball against Applewood's Karen Martin in a Peel high school girls eastern zone playoff game. Graydon won to take the zone title. (Times photo by Ron Pozzer). Graydon, Brampton girls winners

Brampton Centennial, two that ruled their respective divisions in league emerged victorious from the zone finals of the Peel Secondary Schools senior girls basketball circuit.

Graydon received consistent shooting from a trio of its top stars to turn back Applewood 30-25 in a close contest. The win was Graydon's 16th (eight league and eight exhibition starts) this campaign.

Trawczynski and Wendy Marshall popped in 10 points each, while Kathy Mather contributed nine to the winning cause

The win ensured Graydon of the eastern zone title and a shot at Brampton in the Peel final (played Tuesday afafter The Times editorial deadline).

In the western zone's showdown contest, Brampton got a 22-point performance from Anita Staukus in a runaway 55-22 conquest of Lorne Park Sally Dakin was Lorne Park's top point-getter with Graydon and Brampton a pre-season exhibition tilt once last fall with Graydon scoring a narrow one-point victory.

Glenforest captured the junior title in the eastern section via a 16-8 suddendeath victory over Graydon.

The Glenforest team won its regular league season, but suffered an 11-7 defeat in playoff game from Graydon, making a tie-In the western section

Erindale outhustled Lorne Park to take the title

Royal tykes slip on playoff ice

but Royal tyke AA rep Abco Metro Toronto Hockey League playoff spot.

Playing a sudden-death pre-playoff encounter made necessary after a arrangements by MTHL officials - the Royal crew went down to a 2-1 extra-time defeat at the hands of Toronto Kings.

In many ways, it was a heart-breaking finale to the league season for the Abco side. Getting top-notch goalkeeping from Cameron Beach they frustrated King shooters then jumped into a 1-0 lead with Ralph Dinder connecting on passes from his "hot line" mates Paul Hamel and Jeff Pierog.

Kings tied the score to force a sudden-death overtime session, then hit for another tally to make the final count 2-1 Abco's closed their regular Kirland Lake

Dave Luster set up Ward Dickson for the lone marker. Minor atom L and M Caulkings failed in their bids to finish fourth when they took only a single point out o season with defeats from Dorset Park, 3-1, and Mississauga Rep PCO's, 3-0.

a maximum of six in the final week of league play. They crashed to Toronto Blues, 3-Mississauga and Autopars, 2-1, with the lone point resulting from a 2-2 tie ith Wexford Raide Rick Watling scored twice McCarroll once apiece.

A rough series saw Royal minor midget Centennia Caterings suffer defeats from Warren Park 6-2 and 3-Mike Calich, Frank St. Jean, Bob Bartlett and Joe Guerrieri took care of the scoring.

Next on the agenda for Centennials is a minor midget tournament date in

Mixed fortunes for Cawthra sides

Cawthra Kings rep teams second straight start, 5-1 met with mixed fortunes in the first round of Metro Toronto Hockey League playoff competition.

Fastfrate minor atoms. runaway winners of the league western B section. erupted for back-to-back wins against Lorne Park Garlocks to take a commanding 2-0 lead in their best-of-five series. With Danny Findlay and Mike Pascutto combining for shutout goaltending, Fastfrates had things their own way in an opening 4-0 triumph. Scott Green and Dave McEwan each scored twice, with assists going to

McEwan and Jeff Pellizzari

the Cawthra side won its

(two each): Glenn Martin Green was once again the most colorful goal-getter as

The sharpshooter hit for doubles while McEwan, Don Freeman and Greg Pierog added singletons. Pellizzari led the assists department with three. Others came from Glenn Martin (2), Greg Gilbert and John Baker.

The third game in the series will be played tonight

Cawthra midgets, who finished their regular schedule in fourth place, came up against top-of-thetable Gallucci Construction in playoffs and went out in by 3-2, 10-2 and 9-1 scores.

John Douglas scored a goal in each start, while Brian Dodd tallied once and earned assists on all three Douglas markers.

