

which are to be given us in payment.
 Father — We reserve to our selves the right of Beavers hunting, & hunting generally throughout the extent of the Land which we relinquish to you, we require this because, the Inhabitants are in the habit of destroying the Beavers when they happen to meet with their Huts.

Father — We are Indians, and worthy of compassion, when we are sick; there is no Surgeon to attend us. We would wish to have one to visit us occasionally; Yellow Head, could not come to this place, being disabled, from the effects of the severe wounds which he received in the course of the last War.

Father — Take courage, There are but a few of us here, but we are all of the same opinion that is the reason why we acquiesce to what you require. — When we receive the Goods in return, we will receive them in a body.

Father — Take courage, Do not allow us to be ill used by the people who are to be settled on
