

put you shoulder to
the wheel from to-day?
I tell you, very frankly,
in Ottawa, they badly
need a man like you.
You are the only man
who knows all there is to know on the labor problem, and it is a pity that all should not benefit of your researches and conclusions.

My dear Mr. King,
I love my work,
but when it prevents
me from writing a letter I regret very much to write, I can almost find in my heart to hate it. I have long wished to talk to you
