

95892

32330

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text on the left page of the manuscript.]

to me of taking up the work again
when health and strength
return.

Today has brought return to normal temperature and the prospect of continued progress.
I hope Mrs. King has had the same good fortune.

Sincerely yours.

F. A. Anderson.

Friday.

Your letter of the 11th
to Mr. R. puts me in further debt to you. There you are again,
Mr. King, for all your goodness.
I return this last with the other correspondence.

F. A. Anderson.