12th May 6

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th ultimo, stating that the Retrimits Indians wish to engage in salmon fishing this summer, and in reply I have to inform you that twine and rope of the quantities recommended by you may be ordered from Quebec for the Indians to enable them to make nets. The accounts therefor should be forwarded to the Department for payment.

I am
 your obedient servant
 J. P. [Signature]
