

No doubt the writer of that letter voiced the feelings of many Canadian fathers and mothers. Sentiment of this kind must be taken into consideration by the politicians who try to gauge public opinion in the rural districts.

t to the
he wrote
ried and
ced and
by both
s are so
, 'What
of high
I got a
ny boys.
y. The
mother?
long. I
ay to a
the fac-
Govern-
as high
ecessary
factory
e work
export
rade is
nk as I
t while
making
e would
urted in
ed and
lians at
ee why
on? I
ause I
ountry.
't mean
e both
re."