

True Stories of the War

MEN, WOMEN AND WAR

BY WILL IRWIN, author of "The Latin at War."

With the inquisitiveness of the reporter and the pen of an artist in words the author has in this book given us the human side of an inhuman war. He saw and understood the implacable German war machine; the Belgian fighting for his homeland; the regenerated French defending their country against the invader, and the imperturbable English, determined to maintain their honor even if the empire was threatened.

"The splendid story of Ypres is the fullest outline of that battle that the present reviewer has seen. Mr. Irwin's book is all the better for not having been long. It has no dull pages."—The New York Times.

THE LATIN AT WAR

By WILL IRWIN, author of "Men, Women and War."

No correspondent "at the front" has found more stories of human interest than has Mr. Irwin. In this book he has set forth his experiences and observations in France and Italy during the year 1917, and discusses the social and economic conditions as seen through the eyes of civilians and soldiers he interviewed.

"He makes you visualize while you read, because he visualized while he wrote."—The Outlook, New York.

"It is a fascinating volume throughout; the more so because of the writer's unflinching sense of humor, of pathos, and of sympathy with human nature in all its phases and experiences."—The New York Tribune.
