

Lodge in its opinion deems that the good of the Society requires that it be withheld, provided always that any certificated member from the Lower Province or Upper Province shall be permitted to deposit his certificate, if such certificate shall appear correct upon taking the True Blue obligation, and swearing that he received the certificate regularly, and that he is the Brother whose name appears in said certificate.

21. A Lodge shall have power to constitute any Brother belonging to such Lodge an honorary member, upon such terms as the Lodge may direct.

22. Upon a member being initiated or joining by certificate he shall receive a printed copy of the Constitution and Rules of the Order from the Secretary of the Lodge.

23. No private Lodge or Committee shall be held in any room of any hotel, tavern or saloon, nor shall any intoxicating liquor be introduced or used as a beverage in the Lodge Room, either before, during, or after closing of the meeting, at any meeting called for the transaction of business in connection with the Society, under the penalty of one dollar for every offence, to be paid to the District fund.

24. The Master of a Lodge may at any time call a meeting of emergency, of which due notice shall be given.

25. Previous to the opening of the Lodge, the Master shall cause every one in the room to be examined, and no one shall be allowed to remain while the Lodge is open, who is not a Brother in good standing in a Private Lodge.

26. The Annual shall be communicated by the Master of every Private Lodge to the members of his Lodge, but he is strictly forbidden to communicate the same to any member in default of his dues.

27. No member shall receive the Annual at any Lodge but that of which he is a member, nor shall any Brother give the Annual to any member, except the master of the Lodge to which he belongs, unless authorized by the master to impart it, nor shall any Master give the Annual to any member of the Order, except to the members of his own Lodge. Any Master or other officer violating this rule shall be fined fifty cents by the District Lodge.
