Palace of Music.—It is with some pride that we can boast of having in our midst the finest piano and music store to be found yet in Canada. Mr. Lavigne's establishment, located at 55 Fabrique street, besides pianos and organs from the most renowned manufacturers, is overstocked with sheet music and music books imported from Europe and United-States. At that store, visitors will find the cheapest as well as the most expensive musical publications;—easy and light class of music as well as the severe classical compositions by Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, and others.

MR. LAVIGNE possesses undoubtedly the most complete and richest gallery of Artists' portraits published in Europe, as every one who will spend a few minutes in his store will ascertain.

CHAMPEAU'S NEW ESTABLISHMENT OF GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.—This old stand of Gent's Furnishing Goods is now reopened with a first class assortment, and comes very handy to strangers or visitors, being situated on Fabrique St., Upper Town, near St. Louis, Russell and Albion Hotels.

A call is solicited.
