THE BRITISH CHURCHMAN'S MAGAZINE,

Residents in the Colonies, India, and on the Continent of Europe.

"Another new Magazine!" the readers of Another new Magazine!" the readers of this circular will at once exclaim; but the projectors of the "British Churchman's Magazine" feel there is yet a void left for them to fill, fully acknowledging the truth of the inspired Word, which says, "Of making of many books there is no end."

As this is a preliminary circular only, a very brief statement of the plan and scope of the Magazine will be given. This first circular is issued to ask from members of the Church of England in the colonies and at home a promise become subscribers for the Magazine for twelve months. It is impossible to issue the first number until a promised circulation of 5,000 monthly copies has been obtained. Already, while the project is yet in the bud, 1 000 copies a month have been promised. The Editor and Publishers issue this circular with a confident hope that the circulation required will be at once obtained, as they feel certain the want of such a Magazine as the one there. the want of such a Magazine as the one they
