

Wishing you health, and cordially thanking you for the good you have done, or may have intended to do...allow me, Gentlemen, to entreat that on your return to your respective homes, you laudably and wisely will both by your examples and precepts, inculcate and foster the seeds of industry, morality and virtue among your constituents, and by all persuasive means in your power, stimulate and promote a desirable prevalence of that harmonious spirit of loyalty and concord, which cannot fail to ensure the paternal kindness, protection and support of our beloved Sovereign, the security and prosperity of this his valuable Island, and permanent comforts and happiness of his faithful subjects therein.

The President of his Majesty's Council, by his Excellency's Command, then said--Gentlemen, it is his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's will and pleasure, that this General Assembly be prorogued to Friday the Twentieth Day of May next, to be then here holden, and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued to the Twentieth day of May next.

ERRATA.

PAGE 13....after the 18th line from the top, read,
A Message from His Majesty's Council.

PAGE 15....21st line from the top, after the word "per," read, "hundred acres," in place of "per acre."

FINIS.