Wobbly League Off To Good Start On Saturday

Woodstock Beat Brantford in a Loose Exhibition—Jimmy Bradley Has Likely Looking Bunch of Pennant Chasers.

By the score of 12 to 3 the Woodstock semi-pro team made up principally of ex-Canadian league material defeated the Eagle Place Stars in a very poor exhibition of baseball. It was a walk-over for the visitors from the first innings when they scored 9 runs on seven hits, a walk and a wild throw by Agnew.

The season opened with the usual ceremonies, Fire Chief Lewis pitching the first ball with an awful windup and Dr. Robinson at bat. The doctor managed to connect and the Chief was yanked out. Mr. Joe Ham was billed to catch for the Chief, but owing to a misunderstanding did not appear and his place was ably taken by Mayor Spence, who is becoming some ball player this year.

Jimmy Bradley has collected a splendid looking bunch of ball players and one which should make all the other teams in the league travel to beat. They clearly outclassed the Stars in every department of the game, out-hitting them and out-fielding them.

Woolman started the game for the Stars, but was yanked out after the visitors had scored six runs. Plant was shoved into the fray and was a considerable improvement over his predecessor.

Chubby Coose, late of this city, twirled the entire game for the visitors and had them eating out of his hand all the way. Chappy Chapdelaine also well known to Brantford fans was catching. Dubby Shea and McLeod, also ex-Canadian League men, were on the visitors line-up.

It's a shame to tell how the visitors scored their runs in the first inning. After Bradley walked, Galloway sacrificed, but Shea fouled out. Gadsby drove out a two base drive to left, scoring Bradley. McLeod hit to right, scoring Gadsby and worked around to third, when Smith let the ball go through his legs. Scott knocked one to left, along the third base line for two sacks and McLeod scored. Harvey hit to centre and Scott scored. Harvey going to second on the throw in. Chapdelaine was out at first, but Coose hit to centre, scoring Harvey. Bradley up the second time, hit to left and Galloway was hit on the back. With the bases full Agnew tried to catch Galloway on first and Coose scored when the ball went to the outfield. Shea hit to right and Bradley and Galloway scored. Gadsby got a life on Burke's error, but McLeod flew out to Smith, ending the agony. The visitors scored again in the 5th, on hits by Harvey, Chapdelaine, Bradley, Burke's error and Shea's sacrifice.

Gadsby's error and Smith's hit. Again in the fifth they squeezed one around on Smith's hit and steal, and Coose's error on Plant's grounder. Their third and last run came in the seventh when Dowling hit to deep short and went to second on Gadsby's wild heave scoring on Harvey and Chapdelaine's errors. Kennedy of Woodstock and Waldron of Brantford, unrepaid satisfactorily.

Tall scoring was the feature of Saturday games in the Brantford and Paris League, when an average of three goals per team, or six goals per match was scored. The only game which did not come up to the average was that in which Cockshutt and the Scots took part, and two goals was the extent of the divided scoring. One of the teams already named as dangerous opponents to the champions, took up the biggest score. They were Tutela, and made a record of eight goals against the P.S.A. boys, who could not retaliate with even a single.

P. S. A. Sportsmen
Nevertheless, the 300 spectators have a great opinion of P. S. A. as a sporting crowd of the clean type. Despite the adverse score they played pluckily and heartily, and won the sympathy and good will of all. Tutela might have let them down easily, however.

Wanderers Fail
The one thing the Wanderers are aiming at seems to have cost them some goals on Saturday. They will not tolerate any rough methods and two of their men were quickly released after the previous week's game on this account. This no doubt notwithstanding new importations, somewhat weakened their team and undid the effect of the practices previously had. Paris have some sharpshooters, and they were not slow to hit the target on Saturday.

Duffs Successful
The Sons of England lowered the truce to the Riflemen when they scored twice and their opponents returned with four. If report is correct, the Sons were unlucky to lose.

Scots Great Draw
To draw with the well nigh invincible Cockshutt team is a feat well worth chronicling, and this the Scots have done. As usual, Cockshutt allowed their foes to draw the first blood, and then they went after them but could not do better than one goal thus drawing level. It was a fine game, and drew a crowd of 500 people.

Tutela 8, P. S. A. 0.
The above teams met on Saturday in Recreation Park, and a fine game ensued. From the beginning of the game the Tutela boys were far above the P. S. A. The first named team scored about five minutes after the start, and during the first half scored five times. The Brotherhood men tried hard to keep them out but could not succeed. Great credit is due to F. Westcott, A. Hilsley and F. Knowles of the P.S.A. Giles, the goalkeeper, tried hard, but the shots were too much for him and the score ended 8 to 0 in favor of Tutela. The Tutela boys played a fine combination game, although the P. S. A. fought hard, yet they were up against a good team. Thanks is also due to Mr. Holland, who refereed the game in good style. Go to it, P.S.A. Better luck soon.

Paris 4; Wanderers 0.
PARIS, May 18.—Paris easily defeated the Brantford Wanderers in the first game of the Brantford-Paris Soccer League series Saturday. In the first half the locals took four goals, while Brantford played to no purpose. Each rolled in one in the last half. Rhodes of Paris and Hutchings of Brantford, starred. The line-up:
Wanderers—Wheeler, goal; Johnston, Wallace, backs; Garrow, Atkin-

men in Brantford, and they enjoyed it immensely. After fifteen minutes of hard play the Scots were awarded a corner-kick, which Jimmie Morow took, placing the ball right in goal mouth and Archdeacon scored. About ten minutes afterwards Cockshutt equalized. The play all through was a treat to watch. The Scots defence played a clever game and so did the Cockshutt defenders. The half backs also played a splendid game and combined well. Final Cockshutt 1; Scots 1.

Unless Woodstock is a richer city than we dreamed of, Jimmy Bradley is more to be condoled with than congratulated on the victory of his team here Saturday in the first fixture of the Wobbly League. Salaries cannot be met with one game played a week and the only other visible means of support is for some benefactor to go down deep in his dip, and pay the players, who no doubt are popular but short lived little heroes in the town for which they play. But benefactions of this sort peter out, and for that reason we are constrained to say that the Wobbly League will wobble, although the enterprise is one well worth while. On the other hand the Brantford Stars have gone at it right. They will not have players who won't work. This club will develop players before the season is over, and will enjoy all the sport there is in the game. Incidentally the members of this team will not have to walk the ties back home in the fall.

The results of Saturday's games did not upset the standing any. Brantford, Peterboro and St. Thomas, the three smallest towns in the league bring up the rear. Toronto has nothing to boast of, although they have
