"Odious Beyond Contempt," Says Sir Thomas White, Finance Minister

By Courier Leased Wire.
Toronto, Dec. 19.—Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, who was in the city for the Massey Hall meeting Monday evening, handed the following statement to the press. "The charges made in the Liberal press that I have been engaged in a press that I have been engaged in a conspiracy against the honored leadership of Sir Robert Borden, from whom I hold my portfolio, and to whom I am bound by ties of closest personal friendship, are odious beyond contours and transcripts. vond contempt and unworthy even of contradiction. Speaking for myself and myself only, I do not regard a coalition government as either neessary or practicable at this time. and I depreciate more than I can say the unwarranted use of my name in his connection. The Prime Minister of Canada has my admiration, fidence and full support in the arduus and trying duties to which he is so earnestly and patriotically and unreservedly devoting his strength and his abilities."

A Little Story That Comes From Down By The

This story comes from a small town in Nova Scotia. points a moral at this time when the Canadian Patriotic Fund is appealing to the people of Ontario for six million dollars to cover the calls up-Leave Brantford 8.55 a.m. For on the fund that are expected to be made by Ontario in 1917 A public meeting had been held in the objects of the fund and the ur gency of the call it makes on the pa triotism, generosity, gratitude and sense of justice of the Canadian peo ple. The next day came the Mayor of the town to the speaker with this pathetic little story on his lips:

"There were in the audience last ly son is due to sail next week with his regiment. They are not rich people, and with difficulty they have saved forty dollars for the purpose going to Halifax to see the last of their boy. They have come to me to-day to say that they heard your speech last night, and when they got home they had a long talk about it and came to the conclusion that it was their duty to give up their trip and hand over the forty dollars to the Patriotic Fund. Here is the money."

And so one father and mother bade their son good-bye in their own home town instead of in Halifax, and somewhere there is one more mother
