BLIZZARD IN NFD.

BLIZZARD IN NFD.

St. Johns, Nfld. March 18—The worst blizzard Newfoundland has experienced in 20 years fo the last three days has completely blocked railroad and coastwise steamer traffic. Only one death, that of a truck man in this city, who perished with his horse, while on his way home last night, had been reported to-day as a result of the storm, although much suffering was caused.

The crew of the fich-lader schooner Prospero, which foundered near Cape Race, after leaving hers for Eurpoe, was brought back last night. A number of vessels moored for the winter were driven to sea and it was feared that some shipping disaster might be reported as means of communication were restored. Fears for the sealing steamers which set out last week were allayed, however, by a wireless message that all were safe. The blizzard began to subside to-day.
