THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

BOILED DOWN TO A COLUMN.

Smallpox is abating at Stoco, and it is believed it will shortly disappear.

Granville and Gladstone have been provided with extra guards since the explosion at London Bridge.

The English war office has decided to arm the volunteer force with Martini instead of the Snider rifle.

Plans are perfecting for concerted operations for the defense of the British colonies in the event of war.

A silver brick from Mexico, weighing 4,200 pounds, has arrived at the New Orleans Exposition. It is valued at $200,000.

An attempt was recently made on the Czar's life by loosening rails on the Gatschine Railway at a point where the Czar's train had to pass.

A telegram received by Lord Lansdowne on Monday states that another Canadian voyageur, Geo. Fletcher of Manitoba, has been drowned on the Nile.

Intense excitement was caused at Santa Maria, Cal., by the arrival of the petrified bodies of a man and woman discovered in a gypsum quarry near Point Sal, buried side by side.

Samuel Hawkins, under sentence of life imprisonment at Kingston, from the county of Elgin, for shooting with intent, has been released under a pardon after serving seven years in the penitentiary.

United Ireland says: The English exhibit admirable patience under the senseless and wicked frights to which they are subjected, but the police direct the dynamite conspiracy and pay for the explosions."

The Salvationists arrested in Montreal for singing in the streets have been discharged. Great interest was taken in the case and the result was received with applause in the court room.

Excise officers made a descent upon an illicit distillery in St. Valliers, Que. and confiscated a number of stills. The inhabitants thereabouts did not think it was illegal to manufacture spirits for their own use.

The Crofter tenants of the Duke of Argyle, on the Island of Tiers, refuse to pay rent, and are extending their crops. The Duke has asked for an armed force to protect his rights, and a company of marines have been sent to quell the rebellious tenants.

In the death of Bishop Fuller, of the diocese of Niagara, the Anglican Church loses one of its most devout and valued members. A big-hearted man and a generous Christian, he labored hard for many years for the good of all who came under his ministrations.

Rev. Father Pepin, of St. Antoine, near Montreal, who was charged with having committed an indecent assault upon a little girl while at confession, has been discharged. The priest has been thirteen years in the parish, and has made many enemies among his parishioners through his opposition to the liquor traffic, and it is thought the case was concocted to have him re-

An old gentleman was walking gingerly along the sidewalk that extends east from the post office. There is an excellent slide at this point, and the old gentleman was proceeding with caution when a wild boy came along the slide with a whoop and knocked the underpinning from below the pedestrian. They both fell, "Fitz James above, the Gael below." The old man, who was somewhat heavy, might have hurt himself, were it not for the boy beneath. As the upper person slowly rose he looked at the flattened boy and calmly said: "One of us should apologise, and as you are rather out of breath I guess I'll do it. I'm sorry, my son, that this unseemly incident occurred."

The boy gasped out: "Betcher life—old—chap—ye ain't—half's sorry's—I am."
And thus "by mutual regrets was true politeness exemplified."
