ALASKA TO THE FRONT

"Seward's Ice Box" Is Receiving Attention at the Hands of Congress

WILL BE INTRODUCED BY LLOYD

To Hold Election for Congressional Delegate

SENATOR FOSTER AT WORK

To Have General U. S. Land Laws Made Operative in Alaska—Her Value Recognized.

From Saturday and Monday's Daily. Washington, Dec. 20.—Representative Lloyd has introduced a bill providing for a congressional delegate from Alaska. The bill appoints August 1, 1902, as election day and provides that the delegate shall take his seat next session.

Senator Foster proposes to introduce a bill to extend the land laws of the United States to Alaska and failing the passage of this bill, will present a bill to allow the interior department to lease grazing lands in Alaska under the same laws as in the United States. Growing interest is taken in this subject as the value of the grazing lands of Alaska becomes recognized.

There was some talk recently of removing the army post at Fort Canby, but the war department has given assurances that the post will remain where it is.

Second Lieut. John McFride, jr., Coast Artillery, was relieved by order of the war department from temporary duty at Fort Wayne, Mich., and directed to join his company at Fort Canby.

YANKEE REPORTERS TO DROP THE PREFIX

Were Too Swift for the Staid Wilburn Robbins Abject to Term. London Times Man. "As I put my foot on the quay in London in America from the City was accosted by an impudent foreign young man who asked his hat and said 'Mr. — I should be very glad to have your views on American'." With belching modesty I explained that I should require at least a month's residence before coming to a definite opinion on the whole subject of the question. "But at least," he said, "you must have been shocked by the news of the attempt upon our President. I should think it was not really very good of you to be so friendly to our country." The next morning a leading journal took a full page of an article on the subject which will not allow me to return to my own name. The following morning at the entrance of the President and then followed about a third of a week which on the whole I was generally treated very well and much that I had not said of said nothing with which I should not be another person I was, however, that I should be considered the best credit the world's press and political being was extended to the continent of the New York and reached London in an afternoon. I had not time to say and had not time to say and had not time to say.
