Feb. 16th. when Miss Ethel Running daughter of Mr and Mrs Josiah Running, Lansdowne, became the bride of Mr S. Aboud, a citizen and merchant of our town, Miss Eva Running, sister of the bride, and Mr George Ruttle, witnessed the marriage. Mr and Mrs Aboud left for a short trip to Toronto, returning to Lansdowne on Sat. Feb. 19th. when a reception was held for them, and to Athens on Monday 21st. where the groom had a nice home in waiting. Congratulations and all good wishes are being extended to Mr and Mrs Aboud by their many friends here.

Splendid Pictures in the Town Hall

The Liberty amusement Co. on Saturday last and Wednesday of this week put on first class shows in the Town Hall, Athens and despite unfavorable weather conditions had fair houses. The new serial which started on Wednesday of this week promises to be a first class plot and it would be wise not to miss any of the first Episodes. The Comedy on Wednesday night provided lots of laughs. The Girl in Room 29, was a picture that held you all the time and was worth the price of admission alone. Don't forget Saturday night March 5th. as they have some of the best they have shown yet.

Our attention has been drawn to the disagreeable habit the boys have of creating so much noise during the show, in this respect we would like to say that while they paid their admission they didn't pay for the privilege of annoying the other patrons who also paid their admission. A little manliness along these lines would be a big improvement.
