THE CZAR'S TURN

Will Come Next says the Murderer of King Humbert.

Undoubted Evidence that the Assassin Had Confederate to Help Him.

Rome, August 3. — The regicide Bressi still maintains his excited demeanor, and has to be dressed forcibly. He exclaimed to a warder: "It will be the Czar's turn next."

A SAD SCENE.
Monza, August 2. — King Victor Emmanuel III. upon arriving here met his mother, Queen Margherita, first at the castle. She fell into his arms weeping. The King knelt before the body of his father and repeatedly kissed and embraced it. For an hour he, his mother and his wife prayed in the chapel.

BRESSI HAD HELPS.
Rome, August 2. — The police have found evidence that Bressi acted in collusion with others and numerous arrests have been made. Bressi's brother, a shoe dealer, and another kinsman named Marozzi, and seven anarchists have been arrested at Prato. Natalio Fossanzini, who was arrested at Ancona, admits travelling with Bressi from Milan to Monza. Bressi has been removed to Milan.

THINKS BRESSI HER HUSBY.
Brussels, Aug. 2. — A Reforme says an inquiry has been opened at Antwerp regarding a young woman who married an Italian in New York in December, 1897, giving the name of Tomaso or Tomaso Caricoli, whom she believes identical with the assassin of King Humbert. She declares that the photo of the assassin is that of the man she married.

General R. the Armed Over Gen. Prinsloo's Surrender.

Asks Lord Roberts for Permission to Communicate With Gen. Christian Dewet who is Now a British Prisoner.

London, Friday, August 3. — The Pretoria correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing on Wednesday, says: "Commander Gen. Botha is weakening. He has sent a messenger to Lord Roberts, asking for confirmation of the report of the surrender of Gen. Prinsloo, and requesting permission to communicate with Gen. Christian Dewet."

SCREINER'S EXPLANATION.
W. P. Schreiner, the late premier of Cape Colony, speaking in the house of assembly at Cape Town yesterday (Thursday), announced his intention to support an amendment to the government's treason bill, which would disapprove martial law, declare its continuance in certain districts contrary to the rights of their subjects. He took the ground that the amendment would not hamper imperial action. The occasion was seized by Mr. Schreiner to make a long and eloquent explanation of his attitude throughout the war in South Africa. "If I have been guilty," he exclaimed, "regarding the insufficient colonial defenses, the military authorities have been ten times more guilty. I delayed calling out the volunteers until the invasion of the colony compelled it. I was not aware at that time of the weakness of the imperial force." He vigorously denied the existence of an Afrikaner conspiracy, declaring that sympathy with the Boers did not imply disloyalty, provided true allegiance was maintained. Mr. Schreiner paid an enthusiastic tribute to the humane methods of Lord Roberts.

THE NEGRO VOTE

Practically Wiped Out in North Carolina — A Democratic Victory.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 3. — After one of the most bitterly contested campaigns ever known in the old North State the Democrats, and "white supremacy" won yesterday by a majority of about 30,000. Yesterday's election disfranchised the negro and changed the state legislature from its combination majority of Republicans and Populists to straight Democratic, practically insuring the defeat of Marion Butler for re-election as United States Senator.

The negroes, as a general thing, remained away from the polls. The election, unexpectedly, passed off without any trouble.

The election was for state officers, members of the legislature and county officers and for an amendment to the state constitution looking to a practical elimination of the negro from politics, as its adoption disfranchises the bulk of the negro vote.
