THE OLD FAMILIAR FACES.

I have had playmates, I have had companions in my days of childhood, in my joyful school days. All are gone, the old familiar faces. I have been laughing, I have been carousing, Drinking late, sitting late, with my bosom cronies; All are gone, the old familiar faces. I loved a Love once, fairest among women; Closed are her doors on me, I must not see her; All are gone, the old familiar faces. I have a friend, a kinder friend has no man; Like an ingrate, I left my friend abruptly; Let him muse on the old familiar faces. Ghost-like I paced round the haunts of my childhood; Earth seemed a desert I was bound to traverse, Seeking to find the old familiar faces. Friend of my bosom, thou more than a brother, Why have I not thou born in my father's dwelling? So might we talk of the old familiar faces.

How some they have died, and some they have left me, And some are taker from me, all are departed; All are gone, the old familiar faces. Late hatched chickens must be kept growing.

THE MARKETS

CHATHAM GRAIN MARKET.

Planet office, Tuesday evening, December 18.—John Waddell, of J. B. Stringer & Co., gives The Planet the following grain gossip:

The cold weather has improved receipts, the roads gradually having got better during the past week. The prices of coarse grains have also become firmer and have been a factor in the increased receipts.

Beans—Market active, the demand continues to improve particularly from the United States.

Dressed hogs are offering in very fair quantities. The price is $6.75. This price seems to stagger the packers and they are almost a unit in saying the price is too high and decline to order at this price.

BIG ADVANCE IN BEANS. "Anything new in the grain line," asked The Planet of John Waddell, of the well-known firm of buyers, J. B. Stringer & Co.

"Well," said Mr. Waddell, "there's nothing more sensational than the advance in beans. We are now paying for primes—$12.25 a bushel for yellow, three weeks ago they were worth but $10.45."

"What is the cause of the demand?" "Increased demand on the other side. They have to have our beans and when the supply runs shorter than usual the price jumps up. They are worth $12.25 in Chatham, to-day, in spite of the fact that there is a duty of 45¢ a bushel on them entering the States."

Mr. Waddell thinks they will still go a little higher and estimates the crop still remaining in the hands of the farmers in this section at present is from 100,000 to 150,000 bushels.

East Buffalo, Dec. 17.—Cattle—The market was generally demoralized, lower and irregular, with over 300 loads on sale.
