Horton Landing Items. Some of our farmers have commenced haying, but they find it rather dull work since it is still only possible to make hay while the sun shines.

The public school closed last Friday and Miss Schaffner left for her home on Saturday. On the last day of school the pupils presented her with a pretty plate, cup and saucer, accompanied with a fitting address.

Mr Henry Patterson, of the firm of Smith & Patterson, wholesale jewellers, Boston, spent Sunday at Acadia Villa. He was accompanied by his wife and little Bessie. They left on Monday evening for points east.

Miss Maud Schaffner spent last week with her sister. Mr Harry Spook, of Truro, a former student at Acadia Villa, spent a few days this week in the place.

Rev. F. H. Wright preached his farewell sermon on Sabbath last. At the close of the evening service the choir very appropriately sang "God be with you till we meet again." We are all very sorry to have Mr Wright leave us.

We shall miss his scholarly, yet plain and practical sermons on Sabbath, and his consistent life generally. We wish him God speed in his new field of labor. He left on Thursday for Halifax, his next charge. Rev. Wm. Brown takes his place here and we hope will be cordially received and secure a warm place in the hearts and affections of his people.

Mrs A. McN. Patterson entertained some of her friends on Tuesday evening. Miss Edith Curry is engaged in the telegraph office at Kentville this week, during the absence of one of the operators there. Mr Bishop of Port Williams, has charge of the Station here in her absence.

The members of "Lily of the Valley" Division, of Port Williams, held a very successful strawberry and ice-cream festival last Friday evening. The attendance was good, and the best of order prevailed. We understand that the sum of $25 was cleared. The refreshments provided were of the best quality, and the ladies appeared anxious that a good time should be had by all present.

We have rarely attended such a pleasant entertainment of this kind. The greater credit is due those having charge of the management.

Mr R. S. McCormick, late manager of the Bridgetown Monitor, has leased the Digby Courier, a paper which he founded twenty years ago. Mr McCormick is a clever newspaper man and will make the Courier a power for good. Under his management the paper will be non-political. We fully agree with the following which appears in his salutatory last week: "The petty paper which is compelled to defend everything done by one side and to condemn everything done by the other, which views every action of governments and politicians through grossly distorted spectacles, surely fills no want outside of our large cities."

The strawberry and ice-cream festival given by the band on Wednesday evening on the College campus, was a successful and enjoyable affair. The weather was threatening during the day, which doubtless deterred some from attending, but the sun came out late in the afternoon and the evening was a most delightful one—though perhaps too cool to make ice-cream in brisk demand. The lady friends of the band had the refreshments in charge, and delicious strawberries and ice-cream was served, as only Wolfville ladies can serve them. The band furnished an excellent programme of music which was much enjoyed by all. The band will profit to the extent of about $40, by the evening's entertainment.
