MARITIMES LACK FAITH AND PRIDE

Dr. MacDonald Tells Kentville Rotarians Maritimes Have Continent's Best British Stock

KENTVILLE, Oct. 16.—Dr. J. H. MacDonald, of Wolfville, was the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Thursday and he gave a most brilliant and illuminating address—his subject being "The Present Crisis in the Maritime Provinces". He said to be a citizen of the Maritime Provinces was something to be proud of, but it is a heritage of value too lightly...

President Herbert Oylar was in the chair. Secretary D. G. Ross read a communication from the St. John Club inviting the members to be present at ladies' night meeting, Monday, Oct. 27.

WOLFVILLE BOY MARRIED IN QUEBEC

(From the Stanstead (Que.) Journal.) Numbered among the early autumn brides is Miss Beatrice Redfield Parker, whose wedding at All Saints church, Bebe, Wednesday evening, September 24, is of interest to people in Bebe, Newport and Barton, where she is well known.

It was while Miss Parker was a nurse in training at the Montreal General that the romance began which culminated in the charming ceremony of last Wednesday evening.

Dr. Schurman wore a beautiful gown of gray georgette, beaded, and had of the same shade and carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses.

A reception, attended only by the relatives and intimate friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elder followed the ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. Schurman will spend their honeymoon in Montreal and Quebec and on their return are to locate in Newport.

GROUP OF C. G. I. T. ORGANIZED

EQUAL RATES FOR ALL

In referring to the judgment of the Railway Commission on the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, Hon. J. B. Baxter said the decision vindicates the position he has taken on the question.

He contends that railway rates should be fixed for every part of the country by the Railway Commission, and that neither West nor East should enjoy any special privileges.

FUNERAL OF EVERETT W. SAWYER

The large place that the late Dr. Everett W. Sawyer held in the esteem of those who had been associated with him in the work of Christian Education and in the work of the Kingdom was shown at the funeral services conducted at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. George Parker, Woodstock, Ontario, on Monday, September 22nd.

Rev. Jos. James paid high tribute to Dr. Sawyer. He spoke of his work in Woodstock College, where he was universally beloved by his fellow-teachers and by the students.

Dr. Farmer spoke of the character and work of Dr. Sawyer, whom he described as a man of sound Christian culture, who had given his life to the work of Christian Education.

"THE SOCIAL CODE" HAILED AS VIOLA DANA'S GREATEST It will be most welcome news to the film fans of this town to learn that Viola Dana in "The Social Code", her latest Metro feature, is coming to the Orpheum Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

The story of "The Social Code" is an adaptation of Rita Weiman's story, "To Whom It May Concern", one of the finest things this noted author has ever written.

Sumptuous settings, showing the homes and clubs of Long Island society folk, provide an elaborate background for the thrilling story, and it permits the star to wear numberless fashionable gowns that are sure to delight the feminine eye.
