A MEAN TRICK.

Manager Richards, of the Opera House, informs us that some person who has utterly no regard for the rights of others, has been removing photos used for advertising purposes in front of the post office. It is the intention of Mr. Richards to have any person caught in this class of work punished to the full extent of the law.

THIS SERIAL SETS NEW FAST PACE FOR THRILLS.

Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, and Cyrus Townsend Bruns, its writer, "The Woman in the Web," Vitagraph's new serial, the first episode of which will be seen in the Happy Hour, Friday and Saturday, strived to go into it all the thrills which made famous "The Fighting Trail" and "Vengeance—and the Woman," but to make the big picture "different." In this they appear to have been remarkably successful, especially as to location and atmosphere.

JUDGE WILKINSON HAS PASSED AWAY

Aged Jurist Dies on Friday Morning After Short Illness—Prominent in Miramichi.

At his residence, Bushville, there passed away on Thursday night, in his ninety-third year, His Honor William Wilkinson, Judge of the County Court of Restigouche, Gloucester and Northumberland Counties from 1881 until he retired in 1908. His Honor possessed all his faculties and excellent health until about a month ago. His son, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, Rector of Kingsclear, had been with his father for the past week, as the old gentleman was nearing his end. The Judge is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. P. Burchill, of South Nelson, N. B., and Mrs. W. R. Butler, in England. He also leaves eleven grandchildren. The funeral will take place on Sunday.

The late Judge Wilkinson was born in Liverpool, England, on Feb. 11th, 1826, and came to Canada in 1840, and nine years later was called to the bar. In 1873 he was made Queen's Counsel. Mr. Wilkinson held several government positions during his career, including judge of probate, immigration agent for Northumberland County, inspector of schools, appraiser for the Intercolonial Railway and surrogate of the vice-admiralty court of New Brunswick.

His Honor always took a keen interest in church, educational and political affairs. A staunch member of the Anglican Church, he was for thirty years vestry clerk for the Parish of Chatham, and at different times was a member of the diocesan and provincial synods.

Judge Wilkinson donated prizes for merit shown by the students of the Chatham Grammar School, St. Thomas' College, Chatham, and other institutions of learning.

In 1870 he was a candidate for the New Brunswick Legislature. Judge Wilkinson was married in 1842 to the daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Bacon, who was forty-seven years rector of Chatham. Mrs. Wilkinson predeceased her husband about fifteen years.

The funeral of the late Judge Wilkinson took place on Sunday afternoon from his residence at Bushville and was attended by a large concourse of people drawn from all parts of the county to pay their last tribute of respect.

The casket was covered with a mass of the most beautiful floral tokens from friends and relatives. The ceremony was simple but most impressive. The funeral procession was formed at three o'clock and wended its way to St. Paul's Church, where Ven. Archdeacon Forsyth, for over forty years a close personal friend of the late Judge Wilkinson, conducted a most effective service.

During the service three favorite hymns of the deceased were sung—Lead Kindly Light, On the Resurrection Morn and When the Laborer's Task is O'er. Interment was in the churchyard cemetery, and the service at the graveside was also conducted by the Archdeacon. The pall-bearers were as follows: Hon. Rob. Murray, A. A. Davidson, W. A. Park, E. P. Williston, M. S. Benson and D. T. Johnston.
