Still on the Globe is moving independent Britain. The great advertiser Bureau said that dull times was the time to advertise and bring your goods more prominently before the public and show them that it would be to their advantage to buy. Taking that for granted, I consider the paper is not unprofitable every day. Extra time of course you cannot expect bargains which the advertiser prepared to give in all that can see it to their advantage.

GIVE HIM A CALL.

The weather you will really admit is cold. I have goods on hand that need to be sold, for both bills and on credit. Arrive tomorrow in a first-class assortment of Overcoats, Fox Jackets, Dress Coats, Fanta and Vests, Gents' Furnishings, Blank Robe Cloths, Black Does, Tweeds and Vestings.

MADE TO ORDER.
On short notice in first-class style.

All goods will be cheap, as it is very necessary that we should have some cash in order that we may pay 30 shillings to the pound.
