BRITISH THANKSGIVING DAY MERCURY DROPS Lord Avebury's Suggestion of a New Heliday.

London, August 27.-Lord Avebury who, as Sir John Lubbock, endowed England with its August bank holi-day—oceasionally called St. Lubbook's Day in his honor—wants to give the poor, hard-working Briton another day of rest. His proposal was for an additional bank holiday between August and Christmas, but the mem-bers of the London Chamber of Com-merce have thrown cold water on the

Out of it, however, has grown a strong campaign in favor of making November 9, on which date the King's birthday and the Lord Mayor's show are both observed, a public holiday, and it is urged that the Stock Exchange close on that date instead of as usually on November 1.

The discussion of the subject has a commo temperature last evening in the low living districts. called attention to the fact that Eng-
