Our Natural Resources

We notice that many of the Illustrated London weeklies have fine cuts of the Grand Falls pulp and paper industries and the work in the woods, on the Red Indian Lake, and along the River Exploits.

One bird's eye synoptical sketch especially took our fancy. It shows the whole watershed of the Exploits, Millerton, the log pool dam, works and town at Grand Falls, the railway to Botwoodville and the warehouses and piers at Botwood Harbour, and introduces the works at Bishop Falls, and the Reid Newfoundland Railway. Newfoundland is receiving great advertisement as specially fitted for the manufacture of pulp and paper. Yet it is not five years since Sir Robert Bond introduced the measure which led to introduction of the Harmsworth capital into the land, and later introduced the Reid paper people to come here. It may be remembered that the Tory objectors predicted that we should not see pulp or paper manufactured at Grand Falls for twenty years, if at all. But Sir Robert faced all obloquy and Newfoundland is now reaping the benefit of his foresight in this and in many other matters.

At Cochrane St. Church

The Easter Sunday services at Cochrane Street Methodist Church were well attended. The sermons were by Revs. C. Hackett and F. R. Matthews, B.A. The singing was hearty and helpful, the Anthems by the choir as well as the solos by Misses Herder and Vincent were effectively rendered. The song service at the close of the evening service was much enjoyed. The pulpit was neatly adorned with plants and flowers the work of the Floral Committee of the Epworth League. At the Sunday School in the afternoon a special Easter service was held, and was addressed by Mrs. Matthews and Messrs. Arthur Mews and G. F. Grimes.

Hurt on Viking.

The only accident, and this a comparatively slight one, occurred on the Viking the day they were blasting her out of the jam of ice in which she was caught. When the second blast went off a heavy block of ice which was thrown high in the air hit one of the crew named Martin Whalen in the back as he descended and knocked him out. He was taken on board and looked after, but was O.K. next day.

Star Hall To-Night.

The great 4-act Western Drama, Capt. Grip the Outlaw, will be billed to-night in Star Theatre and will prove to be a great success. See the dragging and the robbing of the papers; the arrest and the escape; Capt. Grip shoots his Lieutenant; the knife fight; caught in the trap, and other thrilling scenes. The orchestra will consist of five pieces of music. Specialties between the acts. Doors open at 6.45; curtain will rise at 8.15 sharp.

AT THE DOCK.—The s.s. Home, s.s. Danvers and s.s. Stella, Maria were undocked this morning. The s.s. Ethie will go on for a thorough cleaning and repairs.

OBITUARY.

We chronicle with regret the death of Mr. John Hillyard, which took place yesterday at Blackhead, his native place. His death was not unexpected as he had been on a decline for some years, suffering from the dread disease, consumption, which eventually laid him low. Deceased after he had passed through the Methodist College as a scholar, went up to Harvard University, where he spent some time attending the classes there, and taking up the teaching profession, spent 25 years as a schoolmaster, the last 11 of them as Chief Assistant in the Methodist College. Last year consumption had gained such a hold on him that he had to give up teaching and retire to a Sanatorium, but the disease had progressed too far, and he returned to his native place to pass his few remaining days. He was known as a painstaking and careful teacher and a man of high character and has left behind a record of good repute.

People's Theatre Opens To-Night

Owing to the Lyric Comedy Co. being unable to get here in time for the opening, the management at very short notice were very fortunate in securing the "Old Favourites" who will present this evening their St. Patrick's Night's success, the four act Irish Drama: "Peep-O-Day" in its entirety. This play is amongst the strongest of Irish Dramas, and is replete with wit, humour and pathos. The story takes one back to the "troublesome times" in Ireland, and there are many scenes and situations typical of the period. Patrons are assured of a first-class production, and as there will be specialties between each act there will not be a dull moment crop in. A full orchestra will be present. Tickets will be at Atlantic Bookstore up to 6 o'clock. Prices: Reserved, 40 and 30 cents; gallery, 20 cents; pit, 10 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock, performance begins at 8.15 p.m.

25 Miles of Molten Rock

Special to Evening Telegram.
CATANIA, Sicily, March 26.
The eruptions from the side craters of Mount Etna continued to-day, and the fiery river formed at the foot of Mount Castellanò, moves slowly towards Borrello, consuming everything in its path. The lava stream, winding in and out over the uneven surface at the mountain base, has covered probably 25 miles though its head is not more than 10 miles from the source in an air line. Throughout the night the summit of Mount Etna appeared to be ablaze, but today a cloud of black smoke enveloped the peak.

Rules for Aerial Navigation.

Special to Evening Telegram.
PARIS, March 27.
Rules and regulations controlling the navigation of the air designed to meet the new and complex problems arising from the development of aviation have been formulated by the Aero-Club of France, and have been submitted to the French Govt. for a national law. The code aims to meet the rights and interests of all of the aeroplanists and balloonists flying through space and of man and man's property on the earth below. Following are some of the club's suggestions: Aerial craft whether aeroplanes or dirigible balloons must not circulate lower than one hundred and fifty feet above private property. Flights above cities require a permit from the municipalities. Flights in fog are not allowed and the transportation of explosives except hunting ammunition is prohibited. The fixing of general aerial routes is recommended as the way of avoiding collisions, and aeroplanes and dirigible balloons should keep off a short distance from spherical balloons.

Balkan War Averted.

Special to Evening Telegram.
PARIS, March 27.
Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly averted, according to the belief generally entertained in well informed diplomatic circles here, where for months it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia, at least to secure autonomy for the remainder of European Turkey. Bulgaria has for years made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that the country is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brothers in Macedonia should remain under the domination of Turkey. They also realize that they cannot long sustain the burden of the army on its present footing. For the King also a successful war would mean the consolidation of the position of a dynasty imposed upon the Bulgarian people by the Powers. The moment however was singularly unpropitious because Europe to-day unanimously supports the regime of the Young Turks at Constantinople and desires to give it a fair chance to regenerate Turkey. The last hope that King Ferdinand and the Bulgarian Government had entertained had disappeared when the King recently visited St. Petersburg and found that Russia refused either sympathy or support to an appeal to arms at this time. Bulgaria has yielded it is understood here to see what diplomacy can do.

Atrocious Murder.
NEW YORK, March 27.
The body of Ruth Wheeler, a girl who had just graduated, and was lured from her home on Thursday by a decoy letter of employment, was found to-day in a sack outside the apartments of Albert Walter, the man who is charged with her abduction. She had been strangled. Her face and body had been hacked with a knife and burned beyond recognition. Identification resulted only from shreds of clothing and jewellery. Walter, who is twenty years old, had fled, but has since been arrested.

Two Schooners Arrive at Channel Well Fished.

A Dramatic Scene.

When Robert Carver, a young Irish sailor who attempted to take his life by eating rat poison some months ago, and was only released from jail Saturday after doing a long term, appeared before Judge Knight in the Magistrate's Court this morning he evidently felt his position keenly. On a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct Saturday night he was today sentenced to 14 days. He pleaded with His Honor to discharge him and that he would take the pledge, but this could not be done. He then walked quietly to the seat reserved for prisoners and turning his face to the wall whipped a long sharp-edged piece of glass from his pocket and throwing out his chest tried to stab himself to the heart. The self-inflicted blow was given with much force and could be heard all over the court room, but the very energy which he threw into the thrust defeated the object in view as the glass broke against his clothing, through one portion of the jagged pieces penetrated to the flesh and inflicted a scratch. With the remaining piece he then tried to cut his throat, but instead cut himself about the face. There were 17 officers in the court room and officers O'Neil and Lee pounced on and disarmed him. With the fire of insanity sparkling in his eyes the man fought the police and was not handcuffed till overpowered by numbers. Fighting desperately he was removed to the lockup below, where he made several ineffectual attempts to beat his brains out against the wall. He had to be closely guarded by officers O'Flaherty and Keefe until a cab was procured and he was driven to the Penitentiary. He procured the glass in cell No. 1 yesterday from broken pieces which are on the ledge there.

Lost Seals and Clothes.

In the big sea which the Southern Cross met after she left the ice on Tuesday last, when the pounds on deck were broken the Southern Cross lost about 50 seals which were swept from the decks. Four boxes containing the clothing of as many men of the crew were washed off the topgallant forecabin and lost to them. This occurred on the 22nd inst., 6 miles from Cape Ray. She did not see the Kite or Labrador since the 12th inst. The ship left for Harbor Grace this afternoon.

Entertainment at Littledale.

Wednesday Night March 30th, Star Hall.

The public are reminded that on Wednesday night of this week, at 8 o'clock, the Littledale Entertainment will take place in the Star Hall. It will include a scene from Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice, also a very beautiful operetta: "The Queen's Roses." Many vocal renderings will also be given by the talented young ladies of Littledale Academy, who had the good fortune to be present at the last public entertainment given by the Littledale pupils last year. The programme is a most interesting one, and all may rest assured that a similar exposition will be given on Wednesday night. The splendid band of the C. C. C. will be present to delight the audience with their skilful and magnificent execution. The prices are 40 cents, reserved seats; 20 cents, general admission. Tickets for reserved seats are to be obtained at Mr. Hutton's Music Store; tickets for 20 cent seats on sale at Byrne's Bookstore and C. P. Eagan's Store, Duckworth St. Those who do not, or cannot procure tickets, can obtain admission by paying at the door. A man recently suicided in London and left a slip of paper on which was written:

"Ellis is my name,
England is my nation;
Woolwich is my native home,
And London is starvation."
Writing to a friend same day, he said: "I think I am best out of the way, and am going to make room for some other ratepayer."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The Rev. Mother and Community of St. Michael's Convent, Belvidere, gratefully acknowledge the sum of ($20.00) Twenty Dollars from the Hon. G. Knowing.

Fell Overboard and Was Drowned.

A very sad accident occurred last night, 23rd inst., about 8 o'clock, at the entrance of Paradise Harbor, by which a promising young fellow, Daniel Joseph Collins, 23 years old, lost his life. The schooner in which he was one of a crew of three men was coming from Nonsuch with a load of wood, and on entering the reach, rounding up to make the entrance to the harbor, the jibing of the boom caused her to lurch, overbalancing the man and throwing him into the water. That he was not struck or injured by the boom was evident by his catching the "down-haul" of the mainsail and holding on to it for some time. The master of the schooner seeing the accident had the dory out at once, and was so near to the man that he actually caught him by the clothes, but the speed of the schooner, which was under full sail, forced him to loose his hold, and probably numbed by the cold, the poor fellow clinging to the rope was compelled to let go also, and falling into the water sank at once. The schooner continued her way until she struck on the island, where she has remained all night. Probably she will be got off to-day, but must be greatly injured. The death of young Collins, a native of Grandy's Point, but in service with Capt. John Byrne of Paradise, has thrown a great gloom over the whole place.—R.I.P. Paradise, March 24th, 1910.

At St. Michael's.

There were three celebrations of the Holy Sacrifice at this church and nearly 300 persons received the Blessed Sacrament. The 11 o'clock Eucharist was sung by the Rev. J. Brinton assisted by a full choir, and the music, though somewhat elaborate, was very well rendered. The introduction of familiar Easter hymns at the offertory, Communion and Agnitions helped to make the service congregational and hearty. The church was filled to the doors. The preacher was the Rev. G. J. Bole, M.A., who preached a very lucid and forceful discourse from 1 Corinthians 15, "Now is Christ risen from the dead" on the resurrection of the body." At Evening the church was filled long before the hour for service and many could not find room. The sermon was delivered by the pastor on the text, "They returned from the sepulchre with fear and great joy." The preacher's theme was the "Joy of Easter," which he dealt with under four heads, viz., "The joy of forgiveness," "The joy of companionship," "The joy of strength" and "The joy of service." The choir sang a special anthem after this service and the ceremonies of the day were concluded with Te Deum Landamus sung before the altar.

C. L. B. ARMOURY.—The formal opening of the C. L. B. Armoury will take place this evening at 8 o'clock. His Excellency the Governor, who performs the ceremony, will be assisted by the Lord Bishop.
