Huerta Dallies With Ultimatum.

Special to Evening Telegram. MEXICO CITY, To-day. Huerta tacitly refused to-night to accede to the demands of the States, expressed in the ultimatum sent to him by President Wilson's personal representative John Lind. Huerta was notified early in the day that unless he returned an answer by six o'clock to the effect that he would prevent the newly elected Congress from convening and furthermore make this action known to members of the Diplomatic Corps by midnight, the States would have no further parleying with the Mexican Government. Lind waited until six o'clock and received no answer. He then made arrangements for his departure on train leaving for Vera Cruz at eight o'clock. It was announced, however, that Huerta had one chance more, that if he took the action demanded by midnight the fact that he failed to reply to Lind within the time specified would be overlooked. It was intimated to-night at the Palace that Huerta had not received the note in time to give it full consideration. This, however, did not appear to Lind a valid excuse for procrastination. The prevention of the convening of Congress has been one of the essential points in the negotiations conducted by Lind. This for two reasons:—First, it was believed that the new Congress would lose no time in passing measures having to do with oil concessions; and second, because the convening of Congress would give an air of legality to Huerta's Government. Not since the recent revolution began has the feeling in the Mexican capital been so tense as it was to-day. The reports spread until there was scarcely a foreign resident in the Capital who had not heard that the American charge had been given or was about to be given his passports. All sorts of rumours are current, many persons who were contemplating leaving the country in the near future made a hurried preparation and caught the train to Vera Cruz, preferring to wait for steamer accommodation there to remaining in Capital. Uneasiness was accentuated by the receipt of a number of personal messages from relatives and friends in the United States urging their immediate departure for Mexico.

Cured Eczema Like Magic

Suffered for Years—Tried All Kinds of Treatment—Surprised at Results From Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You can soon tell when people are enthusiastic about medical treatment by the language they use. After experimenting with all sorts of ointments in a vain effort to obtain relief and cure, the writer of this letter was astonished at the quick and satisfactory results obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"It worked like magic," she writes. Indeed, it is surprising the healing that is often effected in a single night by this great ointment. The stinging and itching are relieved at once, and cure is only a matter of time and patient treatment.

Mrs. Clements, 13 Strange street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have suffered from eczema for years, and after using all kinds of ointments, at last tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It worked like magic and proved a God-send to me. I would advise anyone suffering from eczema to try one box and be convinced." 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co. Limited, Toronto.
