

"I think I like you better as BOVRIL"

SIDE TALKS.
By Ruth Cameron.

WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER BEST?

What different kinds of things people remember! I have been several times to a hairdresser's parlor at which I always ask for the same operator. She never remembers my name. Yet the other day when some discussion arose as to the cost of a shampoo and treatment she told me exactly what my bill had been two weeks ago and what it had been two weeks ago. "That time you bought hair net and a jar of cream besides going for the shampoo and the treatment," she said, "and your bill was $2.70."

A Hundred Customers Between. She must have had over a hundred customers in the meantime. However she can remember.

And at the same time, as I said before, she forgot my name.

Evidently she has a natural memory for figures. Perhaps a psychologist would say she was very fond of money and it showed itself in that way. I am sure he would say it meant something, for the new philosophy can read a wealth of meaning into my little pe-

Produce and Provisions.

(From Saturday's Trade Review.)

Codfish—The total exports this week were 18,659 quintals as follows: From Outports—By schooner General A. Wood, Burlin, 5,470 quintals from W. A. Hollett to Oporto; by schooner Mona 749 quintals from Messrs. Spencer & Lake, to Halifax. From St. John's—By schooner Nettleton, 4,571 quintals from Job Bros. Ltd. to Bahia; by schooner Robert J. Dale, 3,957 quintals to Ponce, Porto Rico, from Messrs. Job, Monroe, Hickman and Barr, and by S.S. Digby to Spain and Greece, via Liverpool from various shippers, 3,901 quintals. The export stocks are down to 27,000 quintals with the week's consumption up to $300, nearly 1,000 qts. increase on previous week.

Cod Oil—Several enquiries are being made for this oil for industrial purposes. The stocks of oil on the spot are exhausted but there is always a few barrels to be had after the winter.

Seal Fat—The price of seal fat is $4.00 for young harps per cwt., $3.50 for Bedlamers, and 3.00 for old harps, and hoods. The number of seals accounted for to date is about 100,000. The arrivals are, the Sagona, Ranger, and Thetis. The Ranger is gone out on a second trip in search of old seals. The Sagona landed 8,908, and the Ranger 4,236. The S.S. Thetis, No. 2000, landed 15,500. The S.S. Viking in the Gulf had 18,700 yesterday, and will likely have a full load.

Flour—May wheat in the Chicago market struck the low point of $1.30 per bushel at the close on Wednesday, while July wheat dropped to $1.18 1/2. The week's fluctuations have been confined within four points. The opinion of a probable shortage, that prevailed so strongly in the early part of March, is considerably modified in wheat circles, and the feeling now is there will be no serious advance, if any this spring. The St. John's quotation is still $10.25 per barrel wholesale, for leading brands and $9.65 for under grades. Imports this week were 3,095 barrels and 400 bags.

Pork—The imports this week totalled 371 barrels, viz: 256 by the S.S.

J. J. STRANG, Ladies' and Gents' Tailor, Water Street.

J. J. STRANG, Tailor, Water Street.

Digby from Boston and Halifax. The total in since New Year is 5,962 barrels for the port of St. John's as compared with 2,497 this date last year. May pork strengthened up one dollar at the close of Wednesday, the first upward move for three weeks. Local prices of Mess Pork and Fat Back down one dollar each per barrel this week, and are now $30.00 and $35.00. Ham Butt, Family Mess, Rib and Spare Ribs are unchanged at $31.00, $42.00, and $31.00, respectively. Boston Butt is also still $30.00.

Beef—The S.S. "Digby" brought in 345 barrels of Beef this week from Halifax and the Sable I. 100 barrels; total 445 barrels. The Customs Record for St. John's is 7,663 barrels, as compared with only 3,000 at corresponding date last year. The market is featureless and no change is anticipated in prices, the balance of the spring. There is a brisk movement of cattle from the West to the stockyards this month, also of live cattle to Great Britain, which will render any further decline unlikely. St. John's quotations are, Bos, Flank $25.00, Bos Packet $20.00, Family Special $20.50, Boneless $20.25 to 20.75.

Butter—New Zealand butter which has taken such a popular hold on the local market the past six months, has strengthened in price considerably the past three weeks, so that it is now about seven cents a pound higher in the market of origin. The present cost of this butter held in the local market imported early in the season is therefore, lower than the price for which it could be imported now. Cheapest New Zealand is still at 45 cents in the box, in the local market. Butterine is 23 1/2 to 24 1/2 in large packages, and 30 1/2 to 35 1/2 cents per lb. in ten lb. tins.

Molasses—The holdings of old molasses are very low and the quality is by no means of the best as is now retailed in some grocery stores. Some of it is probably the remains of two year old stock and is beginning to sour. A cargo of new molasses is now due in the "James O'Neill" and another in the "Over the Top." "Carriacou" is also bringing a cargo from Barbados. The "Novelty," the "Evelyn" the "David Ritchie," the "Humoresque," the "Jean" and "Donald Duff" are also either at Barbados or on the way there to take cargoes of molasses.

Sugar—The market for refined sugar continues firm, but is no change in price. In New York standard white granulated is still quoted this week at $8.90 per 100 lbs., but any change that may take place is expected by dealers to be in an upward direction. A sale of "raw" of 300,000 bags was made there last week at 4.11. The local quotation is $10.65 for white American granulated per 100 lbs. None arrived during the week.

Potatoes—The potato market is dragging as is usual at this season of the year. New Florida crop, the first for the season arrived in New York last week and sold at $10.00 a barrel in car lots for No. 1 and $8.00 for No. 2. Old potatoes are selling in the New England States and Canada at $2.50 to $4.50 per 100 lb. bags, which is a firming up on scarcity. In the local market there is no spring activity yet. The quotations are the same as last week, $3.00 to $3.50 per barrel. Imported $3.70 to $4.50.

Hay—A good demand for hay still continues as there is no likelihood of cattle getting out to graze for several weeks. There is quite an active movement in No. 2 Timothy in Canada and as high as $30.00 per ton was paid this week, although the general price is $25.00 to $29.00. The prices in the St. John's market are firm at $23.00 to $24.00 per ton, and $55.00 to $60.00 for single bales. Hay is expected to be running scarce in the Province of Quebec, which is having the effect of strengthening the market. In other sections hay is being held for higher prices.

Oats—An easier feeling prevails in the oats markets in Canada this week, and sales if car lots were made at 65 1/2 cents per bushel for No. 2 "Canadian Western." There were none imported this week, but there are some large consignments to come in during this month, which will keep the local supply well up to the average. The local quotations are steady at the winter prices viz: $3.90 per bushel for mixed and $4.00 for white. Some importers have shaded down these prices on large cash orders.

Viceroy of India Accepts Responsibility

For Montague Incident--Miracle Can Only Avert Civil War in Ireland--Collins Charges De Valera With Despotism--Extremists Want Military Dictatorship.

READING ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY.
LONDON, April 9. According to a Reuter Despatch from Peshawar, Lord Reading, Viceroy of India, in replying to an address of the Northwest Frontier Provinces, took the fullest responsibility for the telegram which led to the resignation of Edward Montagu as Secretary of State for India. Lord Reading said the Imperial Government questioned the propriety of his action. He made it clear that the departure of Montague would not affect the policy of the Government regarding the treaty of Sevres or the proposed Indian Reforms.

COLLINS'S WARNING.
DUBLIN, April 9. Speaking at Wexford to-day Michael Collins declared "unless there was a change in the attitude and tactics of certain persons it looks as if civil war can only be averted by a miracle." Collins added that in such contingency the British would doubtless return and restore order. Train holdups and attempts to prevent any meetings continued today. The Dublin train on which Collins was supposed to be travelling found the rails taken up near Arklow and armed men prevented the repair gang replacing the rails. Collins followed his opponents by making the trip at night. Collins at the Wexford meeting declared the language of De Valera had become that of a dangerous despot and appealed to De Valera to consider where his language "which is being translated into action is carrying the nation. Only feeble Opposition was shown to Collins.

DISCUSSED A DICTATORSHIP.
DUBLIN, April 9. At the recent convention here of 250 delegates, representing a section of the Republican Army opposed to the Free State authorities, it was reported a resolution proposing a military dictatorship was discussed. A rumor also is current that at the meeting deposed De Valera as leader of the Republicans.

APPEALING FOR MONEY FOR ELECTION EXPENSES.
DUBLIN, April 9. De Valera today appealed for 50,000 pounds for election purposes. The Pro-Treaty Party issued a similar appeal. To the statement that disorders in Ireland were being promoted by Reds and other irresponsible persons, De Valera said that it was not the first time the Irish race had to face misrepresentation and slanders of the British controlled press.

Good Bill To-night At the Crescent.
The Crescent Theatre commences the week with a delightful six-act social dramatic offering, entitled "Peggy Putt It Over" starring the talented Alice Calhoun. This is a story that brings forth the star's ability. Miss Calhoun is an accomplished athlete, and in this picture you will see her in a role that fits her like a glove. A most interesting feature of the story is its locale, the scenes being laid mostly in Saugerties, a small town up the Hudson River in New York, in which the producers secured the entire population of the town to appear in the cast. The other attraction is the current episode of Universals serial supreme: "The Diamond Queen" featuring Eileen Sedgwick.
