LONDON NOTES

Baptist Notes

Last Sunday being our pastor's anniversary, the three services were well attended. Many of London's most prominent members of both races assisted in the services. The speakers brought forth many issues that are important to us as a race both spiritual and secular.

Rev. E. M. Wood, our pastor, is visiting his family in Detroit. He expects to be gone for a few days.

B.M.E. Notes.

The Brotherhood of the B.M.E. ch. opened the services for the day on Sunday last by having a paper from the pen of bro. J. W. Fountaine. The paper will be presented again on the 30th at which time a discussion of its benefits to the Brotherhood will ensue. The pastor, conducted the services morning and evening as usual. He preached two very fine sermons in which he stressed some splendid points. The services were well attended.

Our second quarterly meeting will be observed on the 14th of Dec.

The Brotherhood debate on the 9th of Dec. and the Sunday School Xmas exercises are next in order in the church programme.

Rev. and Mrs. F. O. Stewart were entertained on Sunday, Nov. 23rd by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Slaughter.

The concert for the Baptist Church under the auspices of Madam Hunter and Mrs. Budd last Tuesday evening was a grand success, every member on the programme was received with hearty applause. Much credit was given to Mr. Knight of Toronto, who kindly assisted, rendering many good instrumental numbers.

BRANTFORD NOTES

Gen. Supt. S. R. Drake had charge of both services Sunday and gave us two able and inspiring sermons.

The Stewardess Board held an Apron Social on the 20th of Nov., which was a grand success, both socially and financially.

Rev. D. J. Clesant was in the city over the week end, the guest of Miss Bertha Johnson.

Mrs. Clara Delfish has been confined to her home suffering with a severe cold.

Mr. William Miller jr. and Mrs. M. Cockrane were in the city over Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. J. McCurtis will regret to learn that he is quite ill

Quite a number gathered at Bro. Charles Armstrong's home Sunday afternoon and held service with him, which he enjoyed very much. It is nice to remember those who cannot get out.
