Petrolea Oil Market.
PETROLEA, Feb. 11.—Oil opened and closed to-day at $1.29.

Though great secrecy was observed in the issuance of the writ for the new election in this city, the ADVERTISER was able, through the energy of its Ottawa correspondent, to give the date of the election in its issue of last night. Nomination is one week from to-morrow (Friday) and polling election day.

All along the line the reports are that

Mr. Hyman's friends have much increased

TO THE RESULT.

An application was made to the Court of Q.C., to ascertain when judgment would be given as to the London voters' lists appeals.

The court intimated that they had not yet had time to consider the matter. Chief Justice Hagarty said that both sides desire the validity of the notice to be decided upon. If this were the only question, he thought a speedy judgment could be given, but as there were important ques-tions of jurisdiction he could not say when notices were good.

—James Corrigan, on the complaint of his wife, was arrested last evening charged with having threatened to take her life. In his house were found a pail of oysters, a ham, a quantity of fish and a new lamp and chimney. It is supposed that these were stolen. Simeon Blackwell was arrested shortly afterwards, charged with having been a participant in the supposed larceny. They were remanded for a week on the charge of larceny, and Corrigan was ordered to find two sureties of $50 each to keep the peace towards his wife.
