MARINERS have always looked upon Sable Island as one of the most dangerous points of the Atlantic coast. Wrecked men have sometimes been stranded on the island for weeks without being able to inform the world of their condition. It has been deworld of their condition. It has been de-cided to import carrier pigeons from Belgium. The birds are expected shortly. Quarters for their reception are now being prepared in a building at the Marine and Fisheries wharf. There will be two com-partments—one for active birds and the other for breeding purposes. Some of the pigeons, after having become accustomed to their quarters in Helitax, will be taken to Sable Island, and, when a disaster occurs, one will be set at liberty with a message at-tached to it. The pigeons to be used in tached to it. The pigeons to be used in this service are very rapid birds, and will require but a short time to take messages from that point to Halifax.

IN STATU QUO.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 27.—9 a.m.—The situation in the matter of the Illinois Central Railway strike remains unchanged. At the general offices of the Illinois Central Railway it was learned this morning that the strike proper extends over the lines of road between Chicago and Cairo, Ill., and between Amboy, Ill., and Dubuque, Ia. On these lines everything is tied up. On the Wisconsin division, which extends from Chicago to Madison, Wis., there is no strike. This, however, does not help matters so far as through business is concerned. The local business, however, is moving on this division as usual. The same condition of affairs prevails on the main stem of the road, from Centralia, Ill., to Dunleith, at the extreme northern end of the State. The situation is the same in Iowa, beyond Dubuque.

She came to Canada for the purpose of hiding from her husband for fear he would steal the child and now he has done what he threatened to.

SAN SALVADOR.

Revolution — A Provisional Presid Proclaimed and a New Cabinet Formed.

LA LIEBRAD, Salvador, June 27.—During a ball given at the President's residence in the capitol on the 22nd inst., in celebration of the anniversary of the triumphal entry of General Menendez, General Melesio Marcial suddenly entered the ball room about 11 p.m. and announced, on behalf of the chief, General Ezeta, who had arrived with 600 men from Santa Ana, a revoit against the existing Government, demanding at the same time the deposition of President Menendez. At this juncture Gen. Martinez, commander of the Government forces in the capital, appeared on the scene and announced that President Menendez, who was sick in an upper story of the house, requested an audience with Gen. Marcial. An altercation ensued between Martinez and Marcial, resulting in the latter being shot and instantly killed. Ezeta's soldiers thereupon took Martinez prisoner and captured the barracks. Twenty-three persons were killed. It is asserted that the President dies on the following day from heart disease which had been aggravated by the excitement. Gen. Ezeta was proclaimed provisional president and a new Cabinet was formed, but it has since been dissolved and Gen. Guirola is for the present directing the different branches of governmental administration. General order prevails. LA LIBERTAD, Salvador, June 27 .-

The Copetown Accident.

HAMILTON, June 27.—The Copetown accident inquest was continued last night. The evidence was chiefly corroborative and no new light was thrown on the cause of the accident. Thomas Head, who lives a quarter of a mile from the place, swore that he was on the scene an hour after the accident. From an examination of the rails he was satisfied the accident was caused by expansion. The inquest was adjourned until next Thursday evening, when the evidence of some of the passengers will be taken.

Court Ivy, I. O. F., No. 157, Hold Their Annual Demonstration - Thamesford Court, No. 68, Turn Out in Full Force Also Visiting Brethren From St. Marys and London.

On Wednesday, Court Ivy, No. 157, 1. O.

F., held their annual demonstration at Thorndale. The event had been the talk of Thorndale for some time. At an early hour processions of visitors might have been wending their way to the pleasure grounds to secure suitable and comfortable grounds to secure suitable and comfortable places where the procession might be viewed. At 2:30 p.m. Thamesford court, with their excellent cornet band, came piping forth and soon fell in line, accompanied by other visiting brethren, making the procession nearly 100 strong. As the company arrived on the grounds they were closely followed by a crowd of people which numbered nearly 1800. Bro. Mathieson, C.R., made a very suitable and fitting address, and then introduced the chairman, ex-Mayor Gibson, M.P., of Ingersoll, who dress, and then introduced the chairman, ex-Mayor Gibson, M.P., of Ingersoll, who was greeted with the warmest applause, and who gave an address which interested and amused everyone. The chairman then called for a selection from the band, to which they heartily responded and commanded attention and earned applause from all. Following this Rev. A. R. Birks, of Thamestond gave a very interesting and instructive attention and 'earned applause from all. Following this Rev. A. R. Birks, of Thamestord, gave a very interesting and instructive address on Forestry, portraying it in all its aspects. Captain T. E. Robson, then being called to the platform, favored the crowd with a patriotic song, and was encored. Miss Ada Cosgrove, being called upon, sang a number of excellent songs, and at each appearance was given rounds of applause. When she had finished Rev. J. E. Moore, of Dorchester, was introduced and gave an animated soul-stirring address. At this period the 5 p.m. train was due, and the worthy chairman was forced to go on that train, business being urgent. The Chief Ranger then presided to the satisfaction of all. He introduced Geo. Moir, of Stratford, and comic singing, with action to suit, George supplied in a most luderous manner. Another selection was given by the band, and Miss McGuffin rendered an excellent recitation, and a duet by Mr. and Miss Crawford concluded the programme.

As tea was being served the band continued to pour forth volumes of music, which wrought praise from each and all. At a late hour the company dispersed, much pleased with their afternoon's sport and entertainment. The proceeds were $180, and are to be applied to cours furnishings.
