circular showing the number of teaching days for the year 1895. In cities, towns and incorporated villages the number is 207, while in rural, public and separate schools the number is 214.—Mr. Charles Cowley, of the Grand Trunk, Sarnia, a well-known London boy and a graduate of the "Advertiser" has been achieving fame as a minstrel performer in Sarnia. The Post says he has mistaken his calling and should go on the stage.—Each graduate of the City Hospital is presented with a gold badge by the Hospital Trust. These badges are by courtesy called medals. Of the seven nurses who were present with their diplomas and medals on the previous of Nov. 19 last, four wrote on previous examinations, and the other three, Misses Robson, Taylor and Glass, wrote in October, 1895. Of this class Miss Glass stood first, there being only twenty marks on the whole between the standing of the highest and lowest.—The W. C. T. U. proposes to treat the newboys and bootblacks of this city to a supper on New Year's Eve.
A limited number of tickets to the supper will be given out on Monday, Dec. 29, at 3 p.m., in Somerset Hall.Mr. Sam Griggs and others prominent in work of a philanthropic nature, are taking an interest in the affair, and no doubt it will be carried out on a scale worthy of the occasion. Donations from all who are interested in the boys will be thankfully received.—The Horton Street Baptist Church was packed to the doors last night, the occasion of their Sunday school Christmas tree. A very interesting programme was rendered by the children of the school, which was pleasing to the audience and gratifying to the officers of the school. Mrs. Irons, the superintendent, gave an address which met with approval from the audience. Mrs.
Irons and Rev. Mr. Holden also spoke.The most interesting part to the children was the distribution of prizes from the tree, which was very tastefully decorated and well laden with good things. Mrs. Irons, the superintendent, deserves much credit for the rapid advance the school has made under her leadership in the last two years.—Owing, no doubt, to it being Christmas week, and also the unfavorable weather, there was not the usual large attendance at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Tuesday afternoon.A new member Mrs. (Dr.) Ziegler, was received. It was decided to give the newboys and bootblacks of the city a treat, in the form of a supper in Somerset Hall at 7 p.m., Dec. 31. Not only the members of the union, but friends interested in the boys, are invited to help provide the supper. A large committee was appointed, and no efforts will be spared to give the boys a pleasant and satisfactory evening.It was also decided, if possible, to secure the services of Miss E. N. Yates, of Maine, a lady of fine reputation as a public speaker, to assist at a part of the meeting which the union proposes to hold on or about Jan. 21. Mrs. Henderson, who, a year ago, was a most efficient member of the London Union, but now resides in Prescott, was introduced to the meeting and gave a brief account of her W. C. T. U. work in Prescott.A COMIC TREAT.A comic treat is promised in the en-
